NOTES.

- (a) There can be no doubt whatever that Kt to R 4 is Black's line of play. In fact, that move is one of the main pillars of the defence to the Ruy Lopez, when it assumes this or a cognate form.
- (b) That the line intended by this and the next move should be his only resource, and I find no other shows what a precarious bad game he has.
- (c) P to Q R 5 is probably his best. The text move lays the foundation for the line combination that ensues.
- (d) Q to R 4 follows the capture of the Kt with results but too obvious.
- (e) Clearly intended when the last move was made. It will be seen also that the line of brilliancy contains further picking.
- (f) R to K 2, then, of course, Q to R 6 (ch), etc.
