All its property belongs exclusively to its policy-holders. The New York Daily Commercial Bulletin compliments this excellent institution as follows:—"The result of careful and skilful management, during the years of business depression and shrinking values, begin to be quite manifest now in the case of a number of life insurance corporations especially. With the restoration of confidence, the revival of business, and the upward tendency of values, these well conducted companies promptly take position as institutions whose credit is unimpaired, and whose contracts cannot fairly be questioned. And, among this class of life companies, the Union Mutual occupies a most favorable position. Its managers took the earliest occasion to shape their policy so as to leave no room for criticism touching the estimate put upon the Company's assets. Everything in the line of investments was subjected to a careful reappraisal by experts resident in the locality where loans on mortgage or purchases of real estate had been made. An impartial and, where necessary, an unsparring revision of old estimates was made; and whatever discounting of old values seemed called for, the Company's assets were brought to a figure which, backed by appraiser's affidavits, could be relied upon as representing actual value and "hard-pan" prices. This was done at, perhaps, the lowest ebb of the financial tide, and the result is that every turn of that tide tends to increase the Union Mutual's volume of assets, and vindicates its managerial policy. By thus divesting itself of all barnacles, the Company has earned the best possible title to confidence, and we learn, without surprise, that its business for the current year shows a most gratifying and prosperous progress."

This Company is the only one in Canada working under the Maine Non-forfeiture Law, and issues a definite policy contract, having printed thereon the exact time in years and days for which the insurance will be continued in force, after the non-payment of any premium due after the third year from the date of issue, thus bridging over the forfeiture of a policy, which, in all other Companies here, follows the non-payment of a premium, resulting from failure in business or any unforseen cause.
