WILLIAM RICHARDSON, Proprietor

WILLIAM RICHARDSON, Proprietor THE subscriber having leased the premises known as the International Hotel, King street East, has had the whole building refitted and furnished at considerable expense, the result of which is that he is now enabled to offer to the travelling public accommodation and conveniences surpassed by no other hotel in the Province. His long experience in the business of hotel keeping will, he trusts, secure to him a share of that patronage which he has enjoyed for so many years.

The locality of the International Hotel—situated in the centre of the business portion of the city—is of itself a llattering recommendation, and in conjunction with other more substantial advantages which the Proprietor has introduced, will earn for this Hotel, the subscriber hopes, the favor and good will of the business commanity.

The laten disjunctions of the Hotel—one of the great.

hopes, the large dining-room of the Hotel—one of the most commodious rooms in the city—will still be open for Dinner Parties. Concerts, and other social entertainments. His sample rooms, for commercial travellers, are by far the best in the city.

In connection with the Hotel will be kept an extensive where Horses and Buggies can be had at all times and at reasonable rate of remuneration.

The taken None! Hotel will be the depot for Stages to Caledonia, Port Dover, Dundas, Guelph and other places.

An Omnibus will run regularly to the Station, con-useting with trains east and west.

JOHN PARK begs to call the attention of the the Whiskies manufactured at the above establism which for strength, perity, and flavor are unequiparything made in this country. They are well known in great demand throughout the whole of Caulfeine Superior in egge quantities to bive pool, and Ledon, England, where they are much approved.

Grocers, Wine Merchants and Dealer generally, should lose no time in giving them a trial. There are many instances of storckeepers doubling their sole in a very short time by introducing thes celebrated whiskies.

The trade can only be supplied through me at the epot, where all orders will be promptly attended to.
