

ARTICLE 8

(1) This Convention shall not apply ipso facto to Scotland or Northern Ireland, the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man, nor to any of the Colonies, Overseas Territories or Protectorates of His Majesty the King of Great Britain, Ireland and the British Dominions beyond the Seas, Emperor of India, nor to any territories under his suzerainty, nor to any mandated territories in respect of which the mandate is exercised by his Government in the United Kingdom, but His Majesty may at any time, while this Convention is in force under article 7 by a notification given through his representative at Prague, extend the operation of the Convention to any of the above-mentioned territories.

(2) The date of the coming into force of any such extension shall be one month from the date of such notification.

(3) Either of the High Contracting Parties may, at any time after the expiry of three years from the coming into force of an extension of this Convention to any of the territories referred to in paragraph (1) of this article terminate such extension on giving six months' notice of termination through the diplomatic channel.

(4) The termination of the Convention under article 7 shall, unless otherwise expressly agreed to by both High Contracting Parties, ipso facto terminate it in respect of any territories to which it has been extended under paragraph (1) of this article.

ARTICLE 9

(1) The High Contracting Parties agree that His Majesty the King of Great Britain, Ireland and the British Dominions beyond the Seas, Emperor of India may at any time, while the present Convention is in force, either under article 7 or by virtue of any accession under this article, by a notification given through the diplomatic channel, accede to the present Convention in respect of any member of the British Commonwealth of Nations whose Government may desire that such accession should be effected, provided that no notification of accession may be given at any time when the President of the Czechoslovak Republic has given notice of termination in respect of all the territories of His Majesty to which the Convention applies. Any such accession shall take effect one month after the date of its notification.

(2) After the expiry of three years from the date of the coming into force of any accession under paragraph (1) of this article, either of the High Contracting Parties may, by giving six months' notice of termination through the diplomatic channel, terminate the application of the Convention to any country in respect of which a notification of accession has been given. The termination of the Convention under article 7 shall not affect its application to any such country.

(3) Any notification of accession under paragraph (1) of this article may include any dependency or mandated territory administered by the Government of the country in respect of which such notification of accession is given; and any notice of termination in respect of any such country under paragraph (2) shall apply to any dependency or mandated territory which was included in the notification of accession in respect of that country.

In witness whereof the undersigned have signed the present Convention in duplicate in English and Czechoslovak texts, and have affixed thereto their seals.

Done in duplicate at Prague, the 15th day of February, 1935.
