

Figure 10. F.L.H. images of the camera. Notice the hot streak in the left image and the ability to "see through" the fog because of differences in surface temperature.

Figure 9. The Vinten Type 360 reconnaissance camera is rugged and reliable, providing high quality low and medium altitude photography with minimum cost and complexity. (Courtesy of Vinten Military Systems Ltd.)