

PART B—CANADA AND ITS REGIONAL INTERESTS
Chapter 1: The United States	41
(Maritime boundaries and fisheries, Trade and economic issues, Energy, Environment, Defence).
Chapter 2: Latin America and the Caribbean	45
(South America and Mexico, Caribbean and Central America).
Chapter 3: Europe	49
(European Community, Western Europe, Eastern Europe).
Chapter 4: Africa and the Middle East	53
(English-speaking Africa, Francophone Africa, The Middle East).
Chapter 5: Asia and the Pacific	57
(North Asia, North Pacific, Australia, New Zealand, South Pacific, South and Southeast Asia, The Association of Southeast Asian Nations).
PART C—CULTURAL EXCHANGES AND INFORMATION IN FOREIGN RELATIONS
Chapter 1: International Cultural Relations	65
(Cultural agreements, Consultation with provinces, Artistic exchanges and cultural promotion, Sports, United Nations Educational Scientific and Cultural Organization, Scholarships, Canadian studies abroad, Academic exchanges, International education conferences and meetings).
Chapter 2: Information Programs and Press Service	69
(Information programs abroad, Information programs in Canada, Relations with universities, Historical affairs, World expositions, Press service).
PART D—PROTECTION OF PRIVATE INTERESTS ABROAD	73
(Consular assistance, Family reunification and Conference on Security and Co-operation in Europe objectives, Honorary consuls, Transfer of offenders, Refugees, Consular conventions and understandings, The consular awareness program, Consular policy for the '80s, Passport services, Foreign Claims Commission, Private international law).
PART E—POLICY FORMULATION AND MANAGEMENT SYSTEMS	79
(Policy planning, Security and intelligence, Federal-provincial co-ordination, Executive information, Communications and information retrieval systems, Personnel, Interdepartmental co-ordination, Inspection service, Budgetary estimates 1980-81, Physical resources, Foreign representation in Canada and protocol, Privileges and immunities).
ANNEXES—	87
I International Agreements
II Deployment of Posts, Personnel and Programs
III Organization Chart of the Department	