

this Programme, the Government provides $1 million annually to the Verification Research Unit of the Department of External Affairs. He said that the verification resolution also reflects the strong support of the international community for Canada's continuing efforts in this critical area.