

- 2 -

From April to June there will be major military withdrawals and demobilizations, and the return of as many as 60,000 refugees. From July on there will be a long election campaign, then voting for a constitutional assembly in November, and finally negotiation of a constitution to be adopted by a two-thirds majority before independence expected in April 1990.

- 30 -