Mr. MASSON regretted that the name of the venerated Bishop of St. John should have been dragged into this debate to influence the vote of members of this House. He might say he did not believe the hon. gentleman who had done so was authorized to say what he did state. The hon. member had entirely misunderstood the Bishop of St. John, and if he (Mr. MASSON) had wished to be as indiscreet as the hon. member, he might make a statement which would place the matter in an entirely different light.

Right Hon. Sir JOHN A. MACDONALD hoped Mr. SPEAKER would place on record his reasons for ruling the amendment offered by the hon. member for Joliette out of order.

A division was then taken on the Premier's amendment as amended, with the following result :—
