

March 8, 1933.

The Honourable Mr. Justice Choquette, Judges' Chambers, Quebec.

My dear Judge Choquette,

I am sending you herewith a copy of my address at Ottawa last week, at the end of which I advocated a national government, composed of the best brains in the country, to help solve our present problems.

Yours faithfully,

Principal