

LEE AND SHEPARD'S ILLUSTRATED JUVENILES

ic. Six volumes.
Price per volume,

ARMY.
NAVY.
AN ARMY OFFICER.
A NAVY OFFICER.
A F OFFICER.
DECK.

of two brothers, Tom
In the great Civil War.
the brothers are thrill-of the great events of y a library of entertain-for young people ever

In six volumes.
Price per volume,

cs.
HOUSE.

whole art of boat building,
take the ownership of a
In this Boat Builders
servoven with the Infor-Dory, the hero of 'All sequent volumes of the im, and every boy who s friend."

PTIC. Twelve vol-
Price: cloth, per per set, $2.00.

and Lazy.
ness Kate.
nson Crusoe, Jr.
Picnic Party.
Gold Thumbie.
Do-Somethings.

PTIC. Six volumes.
Price per volume, 30

ness Kate.
and I.
nson Crusoe, Jr.

Six volumes. Illustration per volume, 30

omas Gift.
Ben.

nday Party.
who are unable to com-Navy Series. But they ing the little folks. They inculcating good lessons.

CATALOGUE FREE.

J. T. TROWBRIDGE'S BOOKS

THE START IN LIFE SERIES. 4 volumes.

A Start in Life: A STORY OF THE GENESSEE COUNTRY. By J. T. TROWBRIDGE. Illustrated. $1.00.

In this story the author recounts the hardships of a young lad in his first endeavor to start out for himself. It is a tale that is full of enthusiasm and budding hopes. The writer shows how hard the youths of a century ago were compelled to work. This he does in an entertaining way, mingling fun and adventures with their daily labors. The hero is a striking example of the honest boy, who is not too lazy to work, nor too dull to thoroughly appreciate a joke.

Biding His Time. By J. T. TROWBRIDGE. Illustrated. $1.00.

"It is full of spirit and adventure, and presents a plucky hero who was willing to 'bide his time,' no matter how great the expectations that he indulged in from his uncle's vast wealth, which he did not in the least covet. . . . He was left a poor orphan in Ohio at seventeen years of age, and soon after heard of a rich uncle, who lived near Boston. He sets off on the long journey to Boston, finds his uncle, an eccentric old man, is hospitably received by him, but seeks employment in a humble way, and proves that he is a persevering and plucky young man." — Boston Home Journal.

The Kelp Gatherers: A STORY OF THE MAINE COAST. By J. T. TROWBRIDGE. Illustrated. $1.00.

This book is full of interesting information upon the plant life of the sea-shore, and the life of marine animals; but it is also a bright and readable story, with all the hints of character and the vicissitudes of human life, in depicting which the author is an acknowledged master.

The Scarlet Tanager, AND OTHER BIPEDS. By J. T.
TROWBRIDGE. Illustrated. $1.00.

Every new story which Mr. TROWBRIDGE begins is followed through successive chapters by thousands who have read and re-read many times his preceding tales. One of his greatest charms is his absolute truthfulness. He does not depict little saints, or incorrigible rascals, but just boys. This same fidelity to nature is seen in his latest book, "The Scarlet Tanager, and Other Bipeds." There is enough adventure in this tale to commend it to the liveliest reader, and all the lessons it teaches are wholesome.

LEE AND SHEPARD, BOSTON, SEND THEIR COMPLETE CATALOGUE FREE.