

SECTION II.—Discipline of private members.—Cases taken up by sessions on complaint, report, or own motion,—private dealings enjoined,—session to make private inquiry,—not bound by infinite forms,—party apprised,—complaint to be written,—process in absence of parties,—witnesses, how examined,—affidavits when received,—decision of session,—impartiality and firmness enjoined,—no law agents, but assistance allowed to parties,—censure should be proportional to offence,—session not to depose or excommunicate without consulting presbytery,—a member complaining must prosecute,—sessions may sist procedure,—may suspend in the meantime,—disjunctions not granted to persons under discipline,—jurisdiction of sessions Pages 53-58

SECTION III.—Trial of Office-bearers.—Elders and Deacons tried by session,—ministers by presbyteries,—reports, when to be examined into,—complaints by private parties to be written,—precognition, what and how made,—process in case of confession,—process by libel,—when served suspension follows,—contumacy,—committee to prosecute,—libel how framed and served,—relevancy, what—proof—process in case of heresy,—disputes between minister and congregation,—devisive courses,—minister removed charge declared vacant,—reasons of decisions to be stated,—parties to be kept to the record..... Pages 58-62.

SECTION IV.—On Evidence.—Competent witnesses,—husband and wife as witnesses,—credibility,—more than one witness necessary,—not to be examined in presence of one another,—on oath,—testimony recorded,—commission,—member of court may give testimony,—new trial,—proper questions,—leading questions incompetent,—either party may object and appeal,—exculpatory proof,—pleadings..... Pages 62-65.

SECTION V.—On Citations.—Of persons, apud acta,—how served,—how framed,—of witnesses,—to be repeated,—service to be certified,—of congregations through whom service,—by members of presbytery,—duty to appear by representatives,—if no appearance citation repeated,—of church courts,—appearance either by representation or jointly and severally,—Synod may cite presbyteries, apud acta..... Pages 65-67.

SECTION VI.—Restoration from censure.—What and by whom,—process of persons fleeing from discipline,—cautions in the case of office-bearers,—in case of ministers, supreme court consulted,—restored members not to be upbraided,—of the excommunication, how,..... Pages 67-69.

CHAPTER VII.

ON COLLEGES.

SECTION I.—Knox College.—Act of Incorporation,—Declaration of principles..... Pages 69-73.