

	Page
Council—The House of Assembly furiously join in the attack—Remonstrance useless—They stop the Supplies—Insult me in a Petition to the King, and to the House of Commons—I appeal to his Majesty's Government for support—Solemnly warn the Government of their policy—Withhold assent to Money-Bills—Decline to grant the Contingencies, and dissolve the Assembly—Explain to his Majesty's Government why I cannot agree with the Commissioners of Inquiry, and tender my Resignation—Result of the Elections—Dr. Duncombe and Mr. Hume declare to Lord Melbourne that I have fabricated votes—Earnest Recommendation to his Majesty's Government not to surrender the casual and territorial Revenues of the Crown . . . . .	64

CHAPTER VI.

Return to Toronto, after a two months' Inspectional Tour of the Provinces—Submit to his Majesty's Government a Memorandum on the Political State of the Canadas—Also a Memorandum on the Indian Tribes—Remonstrate with the Government—Adhere to the opinion that the Casual and Territorial Revenues should not be surrendered—Reply to Mr. Ex-Speaker Bidwell's Accusation—Loyal Address from the Speaker of the new House of Assembly on granting the Supplies . . . . .	119
---	-----

CHAPTER VII.

History of the Downfall of His Excellency Lieutenant-General Archibald Campbell, Bart., Lieutenant-Governor of New Brunswick—Its political Effect upon me—Receive Intelligence that His Majesty's Government had assented to the Road Bills of the Old Assembly, which I had reserved—Earnestly remonstrate against Concessions to Democracy—Gratifying result of the Metropolitan Elections—Paragraph in my published Despatch against Mr. Hume cancelled by the Colonial Office—Commuted Pensioners the
---	--

the United spatch to t Property of the House

The Colonial
Second Men
—Curious Memorandu
barrassment their Despa has received

Three ultim
Judge Rido
his Restorat General, arr sons for not
His Majesty
his Elevatio
publican Pa Despatch to in it suppre

Order back the
New York—
Washington
American P Despatch a thereto—Al
Secretaries