

Jewell, Fred Hill, G. Anderson, C. C. Scott, E. B. Rattray, J. Convey, A. Drum, A. Evans, F. McNaughton, P. Wolfe, James Hill.

9th Regiment:—Lance Corporal W. Lefebvre, Privates Eusèbe Jobin, J. Plamondon, A. Dumais, Wiseman and d'Amours.

Private J. A. Hudon, 65th Regiment.

Private A. Duberger, 1st Field Battery.

Private J. O'Brien, 1st Prince of Wales Fusiliers.

Bomb. G. Boulanger, "C" Field Battery.

Private E. Bélanger, Third Canadian Mounted Rifles.

Artificer A. L. Béliveau.

Private J. A. Larocque, N.W.M. Police.

Private T. P. Hughes, N.W.M. Police.

A fact worthy of note was that "E" Company of the First Contingent comprised no less than five sets of brothers: the Wrights, the Swifts, the Hills, the Shaws and the Swords.

---

When, in 1861, it was necessary to billet the volunteer force owing to the lack of barrack accommodation, the authorities allowed householders ten cents per day for the keep of an infantry man and twenty-five cents for a cavalry man together with his horse.

