

CONTENTS.

vii

128	Their Vows.	ib.
142	Their Fasts.	198
155	Their Thoughts on the Immortality of the Soul.	ib.
158	Of the Country of Souls.	ib.
159	An Indian Chief's Account of the Origin of the N.
160	American Indians,	200
161	Indian Eloquence.	217
166	Indian Speeches,	226
170	Speech of Logan,	228
174	Speech of the Five Iroquois Chiefs,	ib.
175	Speech of Half King,	232
177	Speech of Petchenanalas,	233
178	Speech of Captain Pipe,	234
179	The Answer of Little Turtle,	236
180	Speech of Red Jacket to a Missionary,	237
182	Speech of Red Jacket about the Witch Doctrine,	240
184	Speech of Farmer's Brother,	241
185	Speech of Corn Plant,	242
186	Speech of Tecumseh,	244
188	Speech of Black Thunder,	245
190	Speech of Metea,	247
191	Speech of Keewatowskum,	250
192	Speech of Black Hawk,	252
195	Speech of the Onondagas and Cayugas,	254
196	Speech of Cannassatego,	258
197	Speech of Gachradodow,	263
	Character of the Five Nations by Colden,	265
	America Peopled by a more Civilized Race than the present Red Indians,	271
	Indian Antiquities, according to Governor Clinton,	279
	The Mexicans are the Remains of a more Polished Nation than the North American Indians,	287
	Conclusion,	305