

"If Hon. gentlemen on this side of the House cross over to the Treasury benches I can promise that there will be no difficulty in getting reciprocity with the United States."—(Hon David Mills in 1895.)

How far Reciprocity has progressed:—

- (1) The Government have given the Americans a free market here for Indian corn and got nothing in return.
- (2) The Canadian people have paid a bill of $34,000 for the High Jointers' big time at Quebec and Washington.

How the High Jointers spent the money:
