

Virginia, construction of the clauses in the act for laying a duty on liquors, and respecting the appropriation and application of 200*l.* per annum, for the relief of the college of William and Mary, 403.

— observations upon acts of the assembly, passed in 1700, 1701 and 1702, 405.

— objections to the acts for the better government of convicts imported, and for the further preventing the clandestine transportation of persons out of the colony, that they amounted to a prohibition of convicts being imported into the province, 436.

— act passed in 1723 objectionable, for its preventing free negroes, mulattoes, and Indians, from voting at elections, 439.

W.

War is a temporary exertion of force, to decide a point of interest, which no human tribunal can determine, 633.

Wars painted, importation of, prohibited by 3 Edward IV. c. 4, 579.

Warrants for issuing grants not sufficient to support those grants, if otherwise irregular and void, 173.

— to disseize a person of his freehold, without trial, contrary to law, 375.

Waste and unimproved lands, where persons under grants from the crown have possessed, it is hardly possible for a stale title to prevail against them, 105.

West Indies, whether the general assemblies of the provinces they are entitled to the privileges claimed by, and allowed to parliaments of England, 239.

Wreck, no salvage duty or gratification due on; and nothing but reasonable compensation for labor in saving cargo, 625.

—, cargo of, in the nature of pledge for the freight, ib.

Writ of cessavit, is only where a tenure is created by a grant in fee farm, 149.

— does not lie, of lands in a colony, on the settlement of which the statutes which gave the writ were put in practice, ib.