Change of Officials At Valleyfield Track

Opening Day Draws Good Crowd—Jockey Cullen Can't Ride—The Results.

VALLEYFIELD, Que., July 12.—(Special.)—The meeting of the Valleyfield Exhibition Association opened here this afternoon under very favorable conditions. Two special trains were required to accommodate the Montreal contingent of turf patrons. Frank McGinlay succeeded in replacing Judge Walsh Norval, both of these officials resigning through some differences with the management at the recent Delorimier Park meeting. The rulings of Judge Norval against Jockeys Farrow and Cullen were enforced, and they will not be permitted to ride at this meeting. The ruling of Cullen followed the sudden improvement of Red Walker's Kyle, the closing day at Delorimier Park, with Judge Walsh Norval, up over her previous record of 1:50 3-5, in the 2-year-old, the famous Venetian race. The attendance was about two thousand.
