Newfoundland delegates left London last May. All the colony's representations to the Colonial Office have been unanswered, and no reply has been received regarding reciprocity with America, althothe imperial government's desire respecting a discussion of that question between Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Sir Robert Bond (respectively the Premiers of Canada and Newfoundland), has been fully compiled with, and the results have been represented to the Colonial Office. The successful management of the colony's affairs by the present administration is manifested by a financial condition unparalleled in its history. We only require justice at the hands of the imperial government, in the removal of the restrictions as to the treaty shore and trade relations with America to assure us a position of permanent prosperity."
