FOR THE STUDY OF THE BIBLE

Annual Convention Opened in Hamilton Yesterday in the Gore-St. Methodist Church.

BAPTIST YOUNG PEOPLE MEET

Rev. J. D. Freeman of Toronto and Rev. James Grant of Collingwood Among Speakers.

Hamilton, March 31.—(Special)—The annual convention and district school for the study of the Bible and missions was opened today in the Gore-street Methodist Church by the young people's society. At this evening's session, Prof. McLaughlin, Victoria University, Toronto, and Rev. Oliver Darwin, president of the Manitoba Methodist conference, delivered addresses.

Baptist Young People.
 The Baptist Young People's Union of Ontario and Quebec is holding its annual convention in the James-street Baptist Church. The opening session was held this evening. Mayor Morden delivered an address of welcome to the city and Rev. J. Bennett, for the local churches. H. F. Stensaugh, Rev. James Grant, Collingwood, and Rev. J. D. Freeman, Toronto, were the speakers. George Clark conducted a song service. The president of the union, Rev. C. H. Emmerson, Meaford, presided.

Judge Shook Up Jurors.
 At the assize yesterday the jury brought in a verdict of $100 for the widow of Thomas Hudson, a T. H. & R. brick-maker who was killed by a train. The jury brought in their verdict in the afternoon in their decision. Chief Justice Meredith said he was astonished that twelve intelligent men should bring in such a verdict. He said that if the verdict of this kind had been brought in at the opening of the assize he would have dismissed the jury, as such a verdict would weaken the confidence of the people in the jury system. His lordship termed it a perversion of justice and dismissed the case with costs.

William Hills Was Taken to Kingston.
 This morning by Bob Stewart, sheriff of the county, Constable John Stanley, Waterdown. A wild rumor to the effect that an effort to bribe the jury had been made is denied by the jurors and court officials.

Charged With Bigamy.
 William Henry Smith, who has been known by the name of Moore, was arrested at the Mount-Street Station here this morning by Constable Scott of Woodstock. He was charged with bigamy. He had been married to a woman in Woodstock last week and had taken a position with the Leishman-Manor-Drum Company, and a short time ago married Miss Emily Cooper, daughter of Mr. Cooper. A woman who lives at Woodstock, N.Y., says she is the mother of the child. Miss Edith Murray and H. E. Job were married yesterday.

SUICIDE AT A DANCE.

New Yorker Reputed Young Woman's Affection for Another Man.
 Victoria, B. C., March 31.—Details were received by the steamship Empress of Japan to-day regarding the alleged suicide in Yokohama, at half past two o'clock on the morning of March 6, of Daniel Bacon, Jr., of New York, a member of a wealthy family. This is the story, brought by the steamship.

A Contradiction.
 The world yesterday was informed that the statement that the Sun Oil Refining Co. of Hamilton had been unsuccessful in its business and had endeavored to make terms of friendly settlement with the Standard Oil Company was wholly erroneous. An oil man of prominence also gave assurance that there is no "war" on between the rival factions.

Want Information Continued.
 The Canada Foundry and Moulders' Union case was again before the court yesterday, the company seeking to have continued the injunction preventing the officers of the union from besetting the company's works and further alleged intimidation of the employees. Chancellor Boyd is hearing the application. George H. Watson, K.C., for the company, J. G. O'Donoghue for the union. The argument will be resumed next week.

Get My Book, If Sick.

Don't send a penny.
 Don't waste time. Let me prove to you first what Dr. Shoop's Restorative can do for you. Restorative will gain your friendship, your endorsement, if you test it. For whole months you can use it without the slightest risk.
 I will tell you of a druggist near you who will furnish you with a bottle of Dr. Shoop's Restorative a month or two.
 I will absolutely stand all the cost if it fails. If you say "no," let me know that ends it as far as cost to you is concerned. Do you wish to know more? I will tell you as plainly as clearly as I can. I want you to know absolutely and without doubt that this offer is made in honor. I have the prescription that cures. My only problem is to convince you that Dr. Shoop's Restorative will cure you. I can repeat the physician making the offer. And I am succeeding everywhere, and here is the secret of my success. I found invariably that where there was a weakness the inside nerves were weak. Where there was a lack of vitality the vital nerves lacked power. Where weak organs were found, always found weak nerves. Not the nervous system, thought of, but the vital organs, nerves, the inside, the invisible.
 This was a revelation. Then my research began. Then I combined ingredients that would strengthen, that would vitalize these nerves. That prescription called a restorative. It is known the world over now as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Thousands are accepting my offer and only one in each forty writes me that my remedy does not cure him. The rest of them say, "That is a record I am proud of. It is wrong to stay sick when a chance like this is open. If well, you should tell others who are sick, of my offer. Don't let a sick friend stay sick because he knows not my offer. Tell him. Get my book for him. Do your duty. You may be saving someone. Sick people need help. They appreciate sympathy and aid. Tell me of some sick friend, of one who needs it. You will show his gratitude to both of us. Your reward will be his gratitude. Send for the book now. Do not delay."

CANADA NOT A NATION.

Possible Negotiations.
 "protectorate" was the proper term, as it merely involved supervision of foreign affairs, but there was no category in which the present relationship could be placed. A nation was complete, self-sufficient, autonomous and the exercise of its independent relations with all other governments was a necessary part of its life. That, Canadians disliked the term "protectorate," because it carried with it the inferiority of the term "protectorate." But all the power Canada had was the grant of an autonomy which had been given by the parliament gave it could take away. The speaker then reviewed the history of the Dominion with regard to the powers of the Dominion were limited, such as the session of parliament the constitution of the Dominion, the method of voting money, and the retention of the capital by the Dominion. He then said that the Dominion was not a nation, but a protectorate, and that the Dominion was not a nation, but a protectorate, and that the Dominion was not a nation, but a protectorate.

Then Canada had no extra-territorial jurisdiction—a necessary appendage of a sovereign nation. It was a protectorate, not a nation. It was a protectorate, not a nation. It was a protectorate, not a nation.

Mr. Ewart then traced the evolution of Canada's treaty-making powers in regard to commercial matters, culminating in the "Wilfrid Laurier" amendments to the British North America Act, which gave the Dominion the right to make treaties with foreign governments. Canada ought to be able to make treaties with foreign governments, and the settlement of disputes. Then he said that the Dominion ought to be able to make treaties with foreign governments, and the settlement of disputes.

Keep on at the Old Stand.
 The picture was a humiliating one in his judgment. As to the future, it was said there were very few who were in favor of the annexation to the United States independent of the Dominion. He said that the Dominion was not a nation, but a protectorate, and that the Dominion was not a nation, but a protectorate.

Imperial Federation Query.
 What is the meaning of the word "imperial federation"? He said that the word "imperial federation" was a term used by the Dominion to describe the Dominion's relationship with the British Empire. He said that the Dominion was not a nation, but a protectorate, and that the Dominion was not a nation, but a protectorate.

Clearing the Way to Tibet.
 Chumbi, March 31.—The Durbar of Bhutan, as the result of a visit to the British mission, has conceded to the British the right to build a road through Bhutan to Chumbi.

 Mr. William B. Best, license commissioner for the County of Halton, and who lives in Cayuga, Ont., writes: "I have been troubled with cramps in my back for several years, and my kidneys were very weak. I have tried many remedies, but I have not been cured. I have heard of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and I have bought a box. I have taken it, and I feel much better. I have no more cramps, and my kidneys are much stronger. I have written you to let you know that I have been cured, and to let you know that I have no more cramps, and my kidneys are much stronger. SPRINTER BOYD NOT ARRESTED.
 Windsor, March 31.—Chief of police Mills had received word from the Chatham Police instructing him not to arrest Wm. Boyd, a Canadian, who had been arrested on a charge of theft. Boyd escaped from an officer in Chatham and was seen last Monday or Tuesday in Detroit. Chief Mills was about to chase his arrest when the telephone came saying Boyd was not the man wanted.

GRENADIERS ON PARADE.
 The Royal Grenadiers held the first parade of the spring drill last evening at the arena and in spite of the unfavorable weather received a strong muster. Major A. J. Goodenham was in command. Lieut. Col. Simms being out of town on regimental business, showed a fine series of manoeuvres. According to this warlike authority, the millennium may be expected about 1924.
 Elaborating his prophecy to a 30-ft. audience, he described the inhabitants of hell as being like locusts with scorpions' tails; and to thoroughly convince his audience, terrifying pictures of these beings were shown.
 Regardless of the laws of gravitation, about 14,000 persons, who believe in the millennium, will mount up on wings like eagles, and cleave the ether.
 The other good but foolish people will be carried later to wilderness, probably in the Holy Land. There they will be catalogued and assorted. English, French and Germans will be kept distinct for three years, during which period the Great Napoleon—either Prince Victor or Prince Louis Napoleon—will set up his image to be worshipped.
 War and famine will then destroy many people. Two hundred million demons will come out of the bottomless pit for thirteen months.
BIG EASTERN TRAFFIC.
 This year Easter traffic by rail bids fair to beat all previous records by officials. When the estimate is arrived at next week, it will be found most gratifying to both roads. "Like expected," said an official yesterday. "The influx into Toronto yesterday was through from morning till late in the evening.
 As an instance of how heavy the traffic was, passengers from Shelburne had to stand out on the platform and step in the pouring rain on the run down to Toronto.
 The trains all ran behind time last night from 25 minutes to an hour and a half."
 Frank Yelch in illustrated lecture on the "Japanese-Russian War and the British Cause," attracted a large audience to Broadway Hall last night. The splendid stenographic views were loudly applauded.

The Emporium of ORIENTAL RUGS

MILLENNIUM IN 1931.
 London, March 31.—Undeterred by previous failures, the Rev. M. Baxter is ready with a fresh series of prophecies. According to this warlike authority, the millennium may be expected about 1924.
