

Christmas dinners provided for those who had been most faithful in their attendance at our meetings.

We are glad to say that since entering upon the work there has been very little sickness, and so we have not been called upon to make many visits to such as are suffering, and only two deaths have occurred during the year.

The work thus outlined goes on quietly. Your missionaries feel encouraged by the general interest manifested, and have no doubt that an influence for good is going out from the mission which will bring forth fruit to the honour of the Master.

MEETINGS.

Sunday evening, 7 p.m.

Thursday evening, 8 p.m.

GEO. MCGREGOR,
HECTOR MACKAY.

Ladies' Visiting and Aid Society.

PRESIDENT, - MRS. H. WATSON.

Mrs. Hyde, finding it necessary to send in her resignation of the office of President, Mrs. H. Watson was appointed to take her place.

The first meeting for the season 1897-98 was held Friday, November 5th, and those taking an active part in the work continued to meet till all known cases, having any connection with the congregation, as well as others, were investigated and relieved. Aid was, as usual, given to several charities that look to us, as they do to the other Presbyterian churches, for assistance in this work among the poor and helpless.

The sum of twenty-five dollars ($25) with large parcels of new and partly worn clothing were given to Nazareth Street Sunday-school Mission, per Mr. James Ross.

The needs of Mina Moore, the young girl assigned to our care in the Mackay institute, were met in April and again in November.
