Waters vs. Caradoc-This was an action by a property owner in Caradoc to restrain the township of Caradoc, the township engineer and certain other adjacent property owners from proceeding to repair a drain running through the farms of the said parties and constructing under the ditches and watercourses act, 1894, on the grounds that the original award was lost, and only a certified copy was now unfiled also that the drain in question did not run through more than two township lots, yet other drains had been constructed emptying into it, and that these drains ran through more than seven original lots, the number limited by the act. It was found by the court that there was a sufficient outlet, and was held as a matter of law that a copy of the award filed was sufficient and that if the plaintiff had a right of action against anyone it was against the owners of the lands above, from which the water came into the drain in question. The action was dismissed with costs to the defendants and injunction dissolved. Mr. Folinsbee, for plaintiff; Mr. Alex. Stuart and Mr. Ross, for the Waters vs. Manigault-This was an action by a son of the plaintiff in the above action, who tendered for a contract of repairing the said ditch at 25 cents per rod, to compel the township engineer to let the contract to him instead of to Morrow, who tendered at 60 cents per rod. This action was also dismissed on the ground that the act gives the engineer discretion as to whom he shall let the contract. THE COUNCIL

the Aldermen Included.

Mr. W. H. Bartram's legal tactics caused something approaching consternation around the City Hall this morning. The case of Sims vs. Kingston paled into insignificance when writs were today served on Mr. Kingston as representative of the corporation of London, and upon Mayor Wilson, Water Commissioners Little and Jones, Hospital Trustee McCormick and each of the aldermen, charging that the recent election was illegal, and notifying them to appear at the next sitting of the high court here.

The reason given for the charge that the election was illegal is that the appointment of 80 scrutineers for the breakwater bylaw was made for the purpose of assisting in the re-election of the mayor and certain of the ald-ermen. Also that the bylaw was illegal.

Yesterday Mr. Bartram asked for leave to amend the case of Sims vs. Kingston by adding the names of other defendants and have the case settled at once. This was refused, having the effect of postponing the case three months. Consequently Mr. Bartram has instituted new proceedings as stated above.

Montreal Bank Employe Speculates With the Funds of the Institution.

Montreal, Jan. 13 .- A sensation has been caused in local banking circles by the news that has leaked out that A. E. Muesen, a trusted employe of the Merchants' Bank of Canada, in this city, is short in his accounts with the bank for a considerable amount. seems that Mussen, who was in charge of a branch of the bank, has been speculating heavily of late. When this fact became known to the bank authorities they made inquiries, and found that Mussen had accounts with three separate brokers' firms. An examination of his books showed that all was not straight. When confronted with the charge he offered to make restitution, and returned a considerable sum of money. The bank authorities are very reticent about the matter, and say it is likely that a full settlement will be made, and that the bank will lose nothing. Mussen's folks are wealthy, and it is probable that a settlement will be effected.

Steps Taken to Invalidate the As a Result of the Tremendous Gale Frevailing.

Mayor, Water Commissioners and All Train Dashed Into the Sea - Engineer and Fireman Drowned-Other Diensters

> London, Jan. 13 .- This city has been practically isolated all day long. No messages have been received from the continent since early this morning, and communication with all parts of the provinces is seriously interrupted. There have been many wrecks of minor importance, and several lives have been lost around the coast. The gale generally has subsided, but another is approaching the Irish coast.

While the storm was at its height yesterday, the train for Llanfairfechan, Wales, dashed into the sea, owing to the fact that the tracks were washed away. The fireman and the engineer were drowned.

GREAT SHOOLERS OF EUROPE. [From Forest and Stream.]

In Europe, on the contrary, where the question of a game supply does not enter into consideration, killing for count is recognized as legitimate sportsmanlike. He is considered to have made a record of honor who has bagged the largest numbers of birds or other game. Thus we read of one— Prince Carl Trauttmansdorff—who has to his credit for a single day's shooting the slaughter of 862 head of game, with the best bag of pheasants 303, of partridges 632, of hares 416, of rabbits 638, of roebuck 12, of fallow deer 20, and of black cock 14, and a best year's count of 10,833 head of assorted game. Another record smasher is Earl de Grav, whose exploits have been duly tabulated for a series of years, from 1867 to 1895. His pheasants score was 111,119, with 89,401 partridges, 47,468 grouse, 26,747 rabbits, and as many hares, 2,735 snipe, 2,077 woodcock, 1,393 wild duck, 567 deer, 12 buffalo, 11 tigers, a couple of rhinoceros, and 9,000 assorted; making a total of 316,699 for the entire period, or about 11,000 annually. This is a record which the most industrious market shooter in this country would needs work hard to equal. In very truth the noble sportsman must have been a monomaniac in the field. Yet for all his slaughter the game supply where he shot has not been permanently diminished.

WHAT IS PROPHESIED CONCERN-

ING THE KAISER. The German Emperor is very fond of being photographed, and is astonishing his photographers by the rapidity with which he changes his dress. The other day he had no fewer than forty separate portraits taken of himself in his pilgrim's drees. As if this were not enough, he had a couple of cameras simultaneously leveled at him, the empress seizing the opportunity, while her husband was in the vein to secure some portraits on her own account. The imperial pilgrim, if tradition goes for anything, should enjoy himself while yet he can. It is an old tradition of the House of Hohenzollern that three emperors of that house will reign in Germany in one year, and that the third will have seven sons, and will bring ruin to the nation as well as an end to his empire. The first portion of the prediction was fulfilled when the present emperor came to the throne, his father, the Emperor Frederick, and his grandfather, the old Emperor William, having both died within the year prior to the accession.

SPEAKING CLOCKS.

We speak of watches and clocks as telling the time, but we do not as a rule expect to be understood as saying that they do it in so many words. Now, however, we may make mention of clocks that literally tell the hour. These phonograph clocks are being Switzerland, and are the very latest thing in the line of timepieces. When a button is pressed they pro-nounce the hour distinctly, thus saving the owner the trouble of looking for himself to see where the hands point. There was a slight improvement in the condition of Representative Dinglev today.

The new invention has been utilized to awaken a sleeper in altogether a more natural manner than by the old today.

Johnathan and John.

Should Jonathan and John fall out The world would stagger from that bout; With John and Jonathan at one The world's great peace will have begun.

With Jonathan and John at war The hour that havoc hungers for Will strike, in ruin of blood and tears-The world set back a thousand years.

With John and Jonathan sworn to stand Shoulder to shoulder, hand by hand, Justice and peace shall build their throne

From tropic sea to frozen zone, When Jonathan and John forget The scar of an ancient wound to fret, And smile to think of an ancient feud Which the God of the nations turned to good, When the bond of a common creed and speech And kindred binds them each to each, And each in the other's victories The pride of his own achievement sees-How paltry a thing they both will know That grudge of a hundred years ago-How small that blemish of wrath and blame In the blazonry of their common fame! -Charles G. D. Roberts, in the January Century.

Thursday morning Leighbors found Samuel Waterhouse, No. 100 Queen street east, Toronto, dead in his bed, and his wife ill and helpless in bed with the corpse. Waterhouse was an old man, and had been ailing for some months.

THEIR FAD. Juiz-What do you especially notice about uneducated men that have made large fortunes.

Biz—They almost invariably attribute it to their lack of education.—
