ROBINSON—In loving memory of Pauline Rae Robinson, who died six years ago, tomorrow, August 22, 1914:
We often sit and think when we are all alone, For memory is the only thing that grief can call its own, What peaceful hours we once enjoyed, how sweet their memory still;
But they can leave an aching void
this world can never fill;
Her memory still is very dear, for oft
is shed a silent tear,
A bitter grief, a shock severe, to part with one we loved so dear.

Inserted by her sister and her husband.
