The nude figure, is considered the most difficult achievement of all the painter's art, and on the whole of this continent only a few artists are able to attempt it with any success whatever. Therefore, it is of exceedingly great interest that perhaps the only man in Canada who has successfully tried this phase of the brush picture is a London man, Charles G. Hunter, the official artist at the Western Medical School, who lives at 551 Adelaide street. Mr. Hunter has for the last four or five years been working along this line, children and infants being his studies for the most part. He has, however, just completed a picture which is something the most part. He has, however, just completed a picture which is something most unusual and is attracting a great deal of attention. MELOCHE—HOFFMAN.

A very interesting nuptial mass was celebrated at St. Peter's Cathedral on wednesday morning, when Miss Nelda Hoffman of Piccadilly street, this city, was united in marriage to Mr. Edmund Meloche of Windsor, the Rev. Father J. J. Young officiating. An interesting fact in connection with the wedding is that the groom is deaf and dumb, while the bride is practically dumb. Attending the bride was Miss Georgina Hoffman, while Mr. Raymond Meloche acted as groomsman. A number of relatives and friends of the bride and groom were present at the cere-Ed Lance, secretary to the local branch of the Soldiers' Aid Commission, is seeking homes in which to place homeless soldiers' children, and the Government, through the commission, is willing to pay towards the keep of these children in good homes.
