

FALL HAT DISPLAY

We are free to admit that we pay more than the usual price for our Derby as well as our soft hats in each grade, in order to have them better, and feel that the lessened profit is the very best sort of advertising and accomplishes the best sort of permanent results.

Dineen's special Derbys at $3.00 are better than any other $300 hat we know, while the $4.00 Henry Heath Derby is in every way up to the usual $5.00 standard--as for the Dunlap $5.00 Derby, we know of no hat so luxurious.

Special Fall display to-day and all next week. Buy if you want to, you'll not be urged.

The old man was in police court yesterday morning, charged with vagrancy, and will likely be deported to England on the grounds of insanity and destitution, having been committed to the jail for a week to be examined as to his samity by the jail doctor.
