DAIRY COMPETITION BRINGS KEEN CONTEST

Fine Banquet at Thornhill, Where Prizes Were Presented-Fire in North Toronto.

THORNHILL, March 23 .- (Special.)-One of the most successful gatherings night, when the prizes won in the re cent "farm and dairy" contests were presented to the successful contest-

Hotel and the genial host and hostess excelled themselves in the excellent held under the auspices of the Farmers' Institute, but to H. B. Cowan, editor of The Farm and Dairy of Peterboro was due the success of the evening.

Ex-Warden George Henry was in the chair and, as ever, an ideal presiding officer, while seated around the festive board were many prominent in the agricultural life of York County. H. B. Cowan outlined the purpose of the contest, which was open to some the contest, which was open to some tact with a branch of a tree, which to be counties in District No. 3 and was designed to encourage a higher stand-Dr. Doherty. ard in dairying, grain-growing and farming in general. He referred briefly to the keen competition with which Ontario farmers were compelled to cope in the British markets, and coun-lled greater care in agriculture gen-A winner of the first prize in the "farm and dairy" competition, David Duncan of Don, was presented by Mr. Cowan with the magnificent silver service donated by that paper.

In a short but thoroly practical presch Mr. Duncan recited some of the speech Mr. Duncan recited some of the difficulties leading to his present welldeserved and popular victory. From small beginnings and careful management, coupled with a thoro knowledge of what constitutes a dairy herd, Mr. Duncan has attained the proud position of winner of the coveted honor. At present on his farm at Don no less than 80 head of thorobred Jerseys are kept, supplying some of the leading in-stitutions of the city with cream. Of it is also one of the most deadly diseases of the American. A disease that the 80 kept, about 40 are milch cows. Mr. Duncan's victory was well deservfensive to others and should be driven out. out. Think how many people you know whose constitutions have been wrecked by Catarrh. Think how frequently it has been a source of other sicknesses. Catarrh is bad in itself, but dangerous applause left no doubt as to "Ollie's" popularity. He spoke briefly but well, and acknowledged in fitting terms the handsome gift bestowed by the "farm and dairy."

Simpson Rennie made a rattling good speech, replete with practical information, and was roundly cheered. Mr. Rennie made the presentation to Mr. Rennie made the presentation to Mr.

Bowling Club held its annual meeting last night in the Central Hotel when these officers were elected: President N. J. McEwen; first vice-president, Wm. Shiells; second vice-president, I.. A. Lemaire; secretary-treasurer, A. J. Barker. The plans for the new club house are being examined and when approved the new building will be erected on the recently purchased pro-perty between Main and George-sts. The club will have 12 bowling greens and representatives from this club will compete in all the big tourna-ments in the neighborhood. Dr. W. J. Charlton has resigned the presidency of the Recreation Club, and G. W. Packham was elected to that office. Three Toronto business men visited this village yesterday, a jeweler, confectioner and plumber, but as there is not an unoccupied store in town they were unable to locate here. There is also a lack of houses to rent at $10 to $12 a month.

Reeve Bull, Town Clerk Taylor and Councillor Cousins returned yesterday after 'visiting Beamsville, St. Catharines and Oakville, to inspect the waterworks system. The same system will be installed here as is already in three places and our representatives state that these towns have all that can be desired in water supply, etc.

On Good Friday afternoon the Humber Lodge A. F. and A. M. will hold an emergency meeting and banquet. board of trade last night decided to have $5000 descriptive booklets of Weston printed for distribution among the manufacturers and business men of Toronto. On Thursday night at 8 o'clock a meeting will be held in the town hall for the purpose of forming a volunteer fire brigade.

The Advantage of a Trip to Town

Being a Typical Dialogue Between

'Why, how do you do-? thought you were down in Toronto." "So I was. Just got back last NORTH TORONTO, March 23.—(Special.)—Shortly after 3.25 o'clock this morning fire broke out in Davis Bros.' store, 73 and 75 Yonge-street, and before the arrival of the firemen the flour and feed store and the butcher shop were completely destroyed. While hurrying to the fire the Eglinton reel broke down and some little time was lost in getting to the scene of the blaze. The volunteer brigade rendered good sernight. I went down for the Easter holidays, you know, to spend a few days with Annie, and do a little shopping." "Shopping! Hm'm! Delicious! I wish I had been with you. Toronto stores are so different, aren't they ?"

"Different-I should say they are. Why, Simpson's has grown so you wouldn't believe it-unless you have been in Toronto lately." "I haven't been down to Toronto for going on two years. Tell getting to the scene of the blaze. The volunteer brigade rendered good service when they arrived on the scene and kept the flames from spreading. The grocery store was slightly injured by being scorched and by water. The damage is variously estimated at from $3000 to $5000, full covered by insurance. While riding thru his property (the Brooks estate) to-day W. M. Boultbee was badly cut about the head. His horse shied anad his head came in contact with a branch of a tree, which tore the scalp, necessitating 11 stiches by me about what you saw." "Well, Simpson's-you know I really didn't go to any other store to shop-I didn't need to, and Don't forget the public meeting for 3 o'clock on Friday afternoon in the Anglican Mission Church in Bedford Park once one gets inside one doesn't want to. You know, they have everything, and it is such a beautiful place, and so clean, and so bright, and so airy. One-half the building is brand new, and the other half has been done over fresh, so it's just as good as new from one end to the other, upstairs Harms the Lungs and down."

"I've heard about their restaurant—is it nice?"

"Nicest really large restaurant in town. They held the Laymen's Missionary Banquet there one night-nearly '100 people were accommodated without the slightest crowding." "They say the tables were spread out to fill the floor, and they could have seated twice the number." "What's the Millinery Department like now?" "Like a-oh, I couldn't describe it. It is like a garden of Spring, with hats instead of plants and green carpet instead of grass, and they have those round globular bay trees, they call them.

"Real or artificial?" "Oh, they are 'really' trees, alive and growing in tubs." "And the hats-did you see the Paris models?" "I did-and I bought one." "Gracious! You bought Paris hat!"

"Camille Roger was the artist— Rue de la Paix, Paris." "You wealthy person! The idea of buying a real Paris model. I thought they cost a fortune. "Don't breathe it to a soul — this hat is an exact Simpson copy exact-I saw the original and it cost me $7.50!" "How perfectly astoundingly lovely! Why, I paid more than that for my hat!"

"And the suits! The new Cloak Department—you should see it.
It must be nearly a hundred yards long—a vista of white columns. green velvet carpet and banks of flowers. You know the whole store is decorated for Easter, and the Cloak Department contains great masses of greenery and blos-

"What were you going to say about the suits? "Oh, I like Simpson's They are simple and good looking. No trumpery about them. They look as I want to look.

"I hear their Underwear De partment is very popular now,

"No wonder. The new Simpson store is a beauty, and lingerie, corsets and all that class of goods have the sunniest, brightest place in the whole new building. Everything is so tasteful and quietly effective. The carpet takes up the noise and makes one feel comfortable and almost private, while choosing.

"It must be a pleasure to just go there and see things."
"It is a pleasure, and I intended to do more looking than buying, but they have such lovely things at Simpson's at moderate prices, and so—but you know how it is." "I positively envy you every moment you stand there telling about it. How's Annie?"

"Annie's fine. See my gloves? bought half a dozen pair. French kid, mind you, and only $1.00 a pair. Elites

"Is that a new kind." "No, it's Simpson's famous on: dollar glove. Everybody knows about Elites down in Toronto." "I want to get an Oriental rug this Spring. Did you see any in your wanderings?" "Lots of them. Simpson's have the cheapest Oriental Carpets I ever heard of. You can get a beautiful little Kazak rug for $15.00. Of course, too. have the big carpets up as high as thousand dollars.

"Oh, dear, Toronto people have a lot to be thankful for, if they only knew it-haven't they? "Indeed they have. If I lived in Toronto I wouldn't care if 1 never saw the inside of another store than Simpson's. They have everything, and the store itself is a
