

Over 12,000 Satisfied People in Toronto Bought Caverhill's Barley Flakes Last Week

Grocers Report a Large Number of Repeat Orders

If you are one of the very few women in Toronto who haven't tried Caverhill's Barley Flakes yet, you've missed one of the greatest "treats" of your life.

We told Toronto housewives last week that they had never tasted any breakfast so delicious, so toothsome, or so satisfying, and this was the result: Over 12,000 people in this city bought Caverhill's Barley Flakes within seven days, and grocers all over the city are reporting repeat orders. And the great majority of these repeat orders are for six-pound sacks, because housewives are not only delighted with this NEW—the only new—breakfast food, but they are saving money by buying Caverhill's Barley Flakes by the sack.

Now we don't want your order for a sack AT THE START. We have such great confidence in these Flakes that all we ask you to do is to buy ONE package now—to-day—and on the test of that one package we will stand or fall.

You've probably tried all the breakfast foods on the market—corn, wheat, oats, etc.—but if you haven't tried Caverhill's Barley Flakes you've got to experience the most delicious flavor of the finest cereal grown in the world.

Order from your grocer to-day — serve Caverhill's Barley Flakes for breakfast to-morrow (follow directions), and you'll notice everybody smiling—from the little tots to grandma. If your grocer's name is not on the list below, ask him to order Caverhill's Barley Flakes for you at once.
