

Order Paper Questions

Hon. Francis Fox (Solicitor General): 1. Normally, all admissions in the Quebec Region have been through the Regional Reception Centre. The population movement data on Annex A illustrates total entries into the above institutions, i.e., admissions from outside and institutional transfers.

2. (a) With reference to inmates admitted to a federal institution with no previous penitentiary incarceration, this information is available on a regional basis only for the years 1975 and 1976. 1975—756; 1976—783; (b) This information is not available from the Inmate Record System, but part of the information requested can be found in Statistics Canada Publication (Catalogue No. 85-207) entitled "Correctional Institution Statistics" under the heading "Previous Commitments by previous institutional history".
