Rice Throwing at New York Wedding Caused Runaway in Which

Bride Was Injured.

ROCHESTER, March 19—A Wolcott, N. Y., special says: "A quantity of rice thrown by an energetic guest at the wedding of Miss Fannie Palmer and Gifford Livingston of Fairhaven, N. Y., held here yesterday, nearly cost the bride her life. Many friends of the pair united after the ceremony in the usual pastime of throwing old shoes and rice at the newly wedded couple, just as they were driving away from the bride's home. Rice frightened the horses, they started to run, the carriage was overturned and the bride, pinioned beneath it, was dragged twenty feet before the groom, who held on to the reins, stopped the team. The wedding trip was abandoned and the bride, painfully bruised, is under the care of a physician."
