

MINUTES
OF THE
NOVA SCOTIA CONFERENCE
OF THE
Methodist Church,
HELD IN THE
Methodist Church, Amherst, N. S.
THIRD SESSION.

The Conference opened on June 16th, 1886, at 9 a.m.

The President in the chair.

The President conducted a Prayer-meeting, followed by a Sacramental Service.

The Conference was then formally constituted by devotional exercises, Brother J. Tweedy leading in prayer.

The Roll of Ministers was called and sixty-six ministers responded to their names.

The names of the lay-members were reported by the Superintendents of Districts.

The retiring President delivered an interesting and eloquent address, referring to various evidences of harmony and progress in the work of God throughout the bounds of our Conference and then called upon the Conference to elect a President.

On the first ballot Cranswick Jost, A.M., was declared elected.

The President then called upon the Conference to elect a Secretary.

On the second ballot, A. D. Morton, A.M., was declared elected.
