HEIRESS SUES RICH WIDOW

Niece of Mrs. Corning's Second Husband Asks $2,000,000 Accounting

New York, Oct. 22.—Mrs. Mabel M.
Coring, of the Plaza Hotel, widow of John C. Corning, of New York and Hartford, Conn., was sued in the Supreme Court here for an accounting for property said to be worth $2,000,000, which she is alleged to have obtained from the late George B. McAneny, a California mining man, whose widow she was when she married Mr. Corning. Mr.
McAneny died in Santa Clara county, California, in 1909, and the property for which she is sued is alleged to have been obtained from him in 1909.

The plaintiff is Anna F. Young, niece of Mr. McAneny, and residuary legatee under his will, who says in her complaint that she has a right to sue under an agreement made with the McAneny heirs in the Superior Court of Santa Clara county. She alleges that the property, consisting of stocks, bonds, jewelry, and precious stones, was "unlawfully and wrongfully taken away and converted" by the defendant.

Mrs. Corning by her attorney, Elmer E. Cooley denies the allegations of the suit. She was the widow of Henry A.
Sissons when she married Mr. McAneny.
Her third husband, who died a few weeks ago at the Plaza Hotel, left an estate of about $2,000,000 of which his widow receives the income for life. The principal goes on her death to the Harford Hospital, Hartford Orphan Asylum, Hartford Y. M. C. A., and the Connecticut Humane Society. Her attorney ar-

WALL STREET

NOON REPORT

New York, Oct. 23.—Wall street, noon—Prices became more uneven later on the further heaviness of utilities and the irregular trend of speculative favorites. Local transactions fell two to four points; Consolidated Gas two and a half and steel and copper reacted to news of the day. The market was active and nervous, with prices moving erratic manner, and rails parted with much of their initial gains. Shipbuilding and the few outstanding features, but yielded with the general list before noon.

CORN MARKET WEAKER

Chicago, Oct. 23.—Weakness manifested itself in the corn market today owing to prospects of new anti-high price restrictions on trading. Much selling took place, chiefly to close out contracts that required delivery of corn in December. The reason for loosening of such contracts was a belief that the board of trade directors this afternoon would formally prohibit all new business in the December option, a step toward averting sensational price operations likely to be brought about otherwise by the temporary scarcity of corn in Chicago elevators. Opening quotations, which ranged from 1 1/2 cents lower to 1/2 cent advance, with December at $1.15 1/2 to $1.17 and May at $1.09 1/2 to $1.10 1/2, were followed by a setback all around, and then something of a rally.

style to which she has been accustomed.

Opera as one item of expense.

WORLD'S TRADE FOR CANADIAN PAPER MILLS

Export Co. Enlarges Field To Book and Bond Papers

Taking Germany's Place

Sweden The Only Serious Com- petitor—Leads in South African Export Now—Ambitious Plans for Development

Montreal, Oct. 22.—A definite movement has been inaugurated by which Canadian paper and pulp mills will take advantage of the new opportunities that are opening up for the export of their products. In the last issue of The Financial Post an explanation was made of the conditions under which, during the war, Canadian business would be increased at the expense of Swedish trade.
The Canadian Paper Export Company, however, is now planning to gain a strong foothold in many world markets with the idea that this will grow in extent rather than diminish after the war and its immediate consequences have passed away. The Canadian Paper Export Company, which has been in charge of the export of Laurentide, Abitibi and other mills and has dealt only in newspaper and pulp, has taken the agency of a number of other paper mills in Canada, such as the Provincial Paper Mills and the Howard Smith Paper Mills, makers of book and writing papers, of medium and fine grades, and will push these in connection with the sale of the Laurentide stock. A big step it is confidently expected, is ahead of this country in these directions as well as in pulp and newspaper.

G. B. Steele, the general manager, states that they are planning to extend the Canadian paper trade in "every civilized country in the world." This plan looks to business after the war rather than any temporary orders which may arise out of immediate conditions.

The confidence that our export trade in paper, outside altogether of the United States, will be very large. In the past the strongest competitor in the paper class of business was Germany, but we believe she cannot regain this position as she will be hampered in getting wood; in other words, she will be puzzled. Sweden has had the lead in coarse papers and she will continue to be the strongest rival of Canadian mills.

A large business is done in paper Great Britain and France, as well as with Australia and New Zealand. At the present time, Mr. Steele said, Canada holds the largest business with South Africa, and this will develop. Even now, with all the difficulties of transportation, Canadian exports were being increased very materially.

SHIPBUILDING IN WALES GROWS

Great Plans For Increasing British Tonnage—Government Takes Over Old Plant And Will Build New One

London, Oct. 9.—In the course of the month it was announced that Beachley, near Chepstow, in South Wales, had been selected as the site of a new shipbuilding yard by the government, which has also decided to take over the yard of the Standard Shipbuilding Company at Chepstow.

Beachley is a village much favored in the past as a pleasure resort, and although it stands on the Gloucestershire bank of the Wye at its junction with the Severn estuary, it is more or less associated with the South Wales coalfield.
An area of some 200 to 300 acres, conprising the whole village, with its church and everything else, has had to be vacated at short notice, and it is understood that the site, with the adjacent foreshore, will shortly become the scene of excavations for docks and engineering works. A new railway from the Great Western line near Tidenham and water main from Chepstow will entail much levelling and excavations, and a new bridge will probably be constructed immediately near the mouth of the Wye.

The clearing away of the inhabitants of the village at short notice was in itself a task of considerable magnitude, as the housing problem was already acute in the neighborhood, owing to the large increase in the population through the establishment of the Standard Shipbuilding Company's yard. It was considered advisable to devote all available labor to the construction of the shipyard and the building of new vessels, rather than to the provision of houses.
Already several vessels have been launched from the company's new yard, in addition to those completed at the old yard of Edward Finch & Co., which it took over.

progress for the construction of ship-
