Variety From Which to Choose Christmas Gifts Is Great

Christmas shoppers, young and old, are thronging local stores urged on by the short time before the great day will again be here, and by the real Christmas atmosphere lent by the snow blanket now covering the city. Some of the stores have already added to their staffs to handle the increased business which in the opinion of a large number of Saint John business men bids fair to exceed that of last

AT OAK HALL

Scovil Bros., Ltd., at Oak Hall, King street, are completing an elaborate program of Christmas decorating throughout their establishment. In the main store is an impressive color scheme — huge evergreet wreaths, with red centre-piece, and generously coated with silver icicles. Upon the wall-cabinet ledges are small trees trimmed with glistening silver strands, while large red candles occupy the intervening spaces. The department of men's furnishings offers an ideal opportunity to "buy for him." Latest designs in neckwear, handkerchiefs, for the properties of the fancy hose, silk and woolen scarfs and gloves are revealed. The Hichkok combination set of belt, silver plated

The confidence that business this The confidence that business this Christmas would exceed that of previous years has led the firm of H. Horton & Son, Limited, to enlarge their extensive stock of leather goods until at present it exceeds that of all previous years. Mr. Horton expressed himself as confident that this year the volume of business would be greatly increased over former years.

One of the lines of leather goods being featured is leather handbags. A large stock of these have been purchased and are offered at prices to suit the purchaser. All the latest designs are on hand.

Among the other attractive lines carried by this firm are trunks, suitcases, club bags, hat boxes and leather goods of all descriptions. A select line of ivory toilet and boudoir goods is also on display and makes an attractive showing. The confidence that Mr. Horton places in the business may easily be seen by the splendid stock he has accumulated.
