Saint John Ladies Prepare For Annual Convention Of National Chapter, I. O. D. E

Every Province in Dominion Will Be Represented at Important Gathering Here in June—Busy Agenda Arranged—Some of the Plans

EVERY PROVINCE in the Dominion will be represented at the annual convention of the National Chapter of the I. O. D. E., which will be held in Saint John during the second week in June, and among the 125 delegates expected will be some of the foremost Canadian women of today.

Mrs. Heber Vroom, regent of the Saint John Municipal chapter, said yesterday word had been received from a large number of the delegates who intend to be present. Miss R. S. Church, sister of the former Mayor of Toronto, is national president, and will preside. Others among the national executive who are generally known in Saint John and will attend are Miss Joan Arnoldi, first vice-president and former president, who has visited in the city on several occasions; Mrs. Hamilton Burns, of Toronto, who formerly lived in Fredericton, and Mrs. J. U. Powers, of Toronto, national treasurer.

Preliminary to the convention there will be a special service held on the afternoon of Sunday, June 6, in Trinity church at 4 o'clock. The service will be open to the public, and the clergy taking part will be representative of all denominations. The order of service is now being prepared and it is expected it will be deeply impressive.

BUSINESS SESSIONS.

All of the business sessions will be held in the Admiral Beatty Hotel, and registration of delegates will commence on Monday night when the most prominent residents of New Brunswick are to be special guests. Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. W. F. Todd will be present, and the opening address will be given by Governor Todd.

His Worship, Mayor White, will be the chief speaker of the evening, and there will be a musical program. The president's address will also be given that evening.

Mrs. Dickinson Is Named President

Saint John Branch of W. C. T. U. Hears Reports at Annual Meeting

Mrs. C. W. Dickinson was elected president of the Saint John Branch of the W. C. T. U. at its annual meeting held yesterday afternoon when excellent reports of the year's work were received. Mrs. Hope Thomson, retiring president, was in the chair and was elected to the first-presidency. Her address at the meeting was a splendid exhortation of the members, and at its close she recited an inspirational poem entitled "Holding up the Torch."

Mrs. Thomson also led the opening devotions, and prayer was offered by Mrs. Mary Seymour, Mrs. Percy Trafton, Mrs. Robert Nichols and Mrs. Thomson.

Mrs. T. O. Dales, superintendent of parlor meetings, gave a very good report of her department, telling of several meetings that had been held. Mrs. Seymour reported having attended the jail regularly, helped and ministered to the prisoners and given them treats and comforts.

The absence of Miss Daniels, because of illness, was regretted and flowers were ordered to be sent to her with a message of greeting.

OFFICERS ELECTED.

The election of officers and department superintendents resulted as follows:

President, Mrs. C. W. Dickinson; vice-president, Mrs. Hope Thomson; secretary, Mrs. Charles Hutchings; treasurer, Mrs. J. Hoare; assistant secretary, Mrs. Ellsworth Scott; corresponding secretary, Mrs. A. Bergland. Superintendents: Evangelistic, Mrs. Mary Seymour; parlor meetings, Mrs. T. O. Dales; hospital visiting, Mrs. P. Trafton, and soap wrappers, Mrs. Ellsworth Scott.

After the business meeting there was a social half hour and refreshments were served.

ZITA LOSES CASE

Ex-Empress of Austria's Action Against Jewelers is Dismissed

PARIS, May 19—Zita, former Empress of Austria, has lost her case against purchasers of Austro-Hungarian crown jewels. M. Glaro, the examining magistrate, holds that Zita had not made out a case against Joseph and Jacques Bienenfeld, jewellers, whom she had charged with fraud in connection with the sale of the gems. An appeal has been taken against M. Glaro's decision.

Social Notes of Interest

Mrs. Simeon A. Jones gave a very enjoyable bridge of four tables, at her residence, Garden street, on Monday afternoon in honor of Mrs. William Beer, of Toronto. Pansies and other early spring flowers adorned the drawing room and also centred the tea table, over which Mrs. C. M. Bostwick presided. The fortunate prize winners were Mrs. George B. Hegan, Mrs. G. S. Keator, Mrs. James Jack and Mrs. Vassie. The guests were Mrs. Beer, Mrs. Morris Robinson, Mrs. Andrew Jack, Mrs. George B. Hegan, Mrs. H. B. Robinson, Mrs. John McMillan, Mrs. G. S. Keator, Mrs. James F. Robertson, Mrs. L. R. Harrison, Mrs. J. Roy Campbell, Mrs. John K. Schofield, Mrs. Vassie, Mrs. Malcolm Mackay, Jr., Mrs. Carleton Lee, Mrs. James Jack and Miss Hooper.

Saint John's (Stone) Church Guild was entertained on Monday evening by the president, Miss Edith O. Skinner, at her residence, 34 Coburg street. Pink carnations were used in the decorations of the drawing room and dining room. At the close of a delightful social evening refreshments were served, when Mrs. J. W. McKean, presided over the coffee cups and Mrs. J. Ernest Fleming assisted in serving. A pleasing feature of the evening was the presentation to Miss Skinner of a beautiful bouquet of spring flowers from the members of the Guild. About 20 members were present.

The Girls' Club of St. Columba Presbyterian church, Fairville, were entertained Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Thomas Totten, King Street East. The evening was pleasantly spent in games and music. Mrs. Frederick Morrow and Miss Beatrice Stirson assisted the hostess in serving dainty refreshments.

Mrs. Herbert Read, of Stonehaven, N. B., and Miss Helen Smith, of Saint John, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Read, Bridge street, Sackville.

Miss Margaret P. Steeves, daughter of Mrs. M. Steeves, Hazen street, returned on Friday from Fredericton, where she has successfully completed her Junior year at the University of New Brunswick.

Mrs. William Beer, of Toronto, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Arthur S. Bowman at Rothesay.

Mrs. John de Soyres is leaving Montreal at the end of the month for Duck Cove, N. B., where she will occupy her summer home for the season.

Mrs. George H. McCallum, of Ottawa, arrived in the city yesterday and will be the guest of her mother, Mrs. R. B. Emerson, for the summer months.

Mrs. J. Edgar March, of Ottawa, arrived in Sackville, N. B., the last of the week and will spend the summer with her parents, Prof. and Mrs. DesBarres.

Miss Ruth Robinson, of Rothesay, who spent a week in Montreal with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. H. Beverley Robinson, Mackay street, returned home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Pearce, who have spent several weeks in England returned home on Friday.

This Hair Remover Gets Roots and All

Here's the grandest thing for hair-disfigured womankind that has happened in a hundred years! A way to actually remove the roots of superfluous hair — easily, quickly, and harmlessly! A method that does away forever with shaving, electrolysis, and the application of preparations which merely take off the surface hair.

The Phelactine process is certain to remove the hair entire, roots and all. There's no odor or mussiness about Phelactine, and it is entirely non-poisonous—a child could safely eat it. Get a stick of Phelactine from your druggist today, follow the simple directions, and you will have a real surprise. With your own eyes you will see the roots come right out.
