

The Dominion Morning Star

VOL. XVII, No. 138

ST. JOHN, N. B., MONDAY, MARCH 14, 1921

TWELVE PAGES—ONE CENT

SIX EXECUTED IN MOUNT JOY PRISON

Convicted of Killing Members of British Forces

Twenty Thousand People Gathered During Hours of Execution, Praying for the Condemned—All Work in Dublin Stopped.

Dublin, March 14—Six prisoners convicted of complicity with the murder of British intelligence officers and members of the crown forces in Ireland were executed in Mount Joy prison, this city, today.

Some 20,000 people gathered outside the prison during the hour the executions were going on, and all work in the city stopped until 11 o'clock.

Not since the executions following the 1916 uprising, with the possible exception of the hanging of Kevin Barry, in November last for an attack on a military escort, have the Sinn Féin sympathizers been more profoundly stirred.

Although six o'clock had been fixed for the execution of the first pair, it was not until 8:30 that the crowd knew the fate of the prisoners.

At that time the following notice was posted outside the jail gates: "The sentence of the law passed on Thom Whelan and Patrick Moran, founders of the crown forces in Ireland, was executed at 8:30 o'clock this morning."

At that time the following notice was posted outside the jail gates: "The sentence of the law passed on Thom Whelan and Patrick Moran, founders of the crown forces in Ireland, was executed at 8:30 o'clock this morning."

At that time the following notice was posted outside the jail gates: "The sentence of the law passed on Thom Whelan and Patrick Moran, founders of the crown forces in Ireland, was executed at 8:30 o'clock this morning."

At that time the following notice was posted outside the jail gates: "The sentence of the law passed on Thom Whelan and Patrick Moran, founders of the crown forces in Ireland, was executed at 8:30 o'clock this morning."

At that time the following notice was posted outside the jail gates: "The sentence of the law passed on Thom Whelan and Patrick Moran, founders of the crown forces in Ireland, was executed at 8:30 o'clock this morning."

At that time the following notice was posted outside the jail gates: "The sentence of the law passed on Thom Whelan and Patrick Moran, founders of the crown forces in Ireland, was executed at 8:30 o'clock this morning."

At that time the following notice was posted outside the jail gates: "The sentence of the law passed on Thom Whelan and Patrick Moran, founders of the crown forces in Ireland, was executed at 8:30 o'clock this morning."

At that time the following notice was posted outside the jail gates: "The sentence of the law passed on Thom Whelan and Patrick Moran, founders of the crown forces in Ireland, was executed at 8:30 o'clock this morning."

At that time the following notice was posted outside the jail gates: "The sentence of the law passed on Thom Whelan and Patrick Moran, founders of the crown forces in Ireland, was executed at 8:30 o'clock this morning."

At that time the following notice was posted outside the jail gates: "The sentence of the law passed on Thom Whelan and Patrick Moran, founders of the crown forces in Ireland, was executed at 8:30 o'clock this morning."

At that time the following notice was posted outside the jail gates: "The sentence of the law passed on Thom Whelan and Patrick Moran, founders of the crown forces in Ireland, was executed at 8:30 o'clock this morning."

British Naval Estimates On 'One Power Standard'

London, March 14.—The British naval estimates for 1921-22 amount to £91,186,667 sterling gross, and £82,479,000 net, so it was announced by Lord Lee of Fareham, first lord of the admiralty today.

DEFENCE OF ST. PIERRE GOES ON

One Witness on the Stand This Morning

Companion of Girls Who Testified on Saturday—Much Stress Being Laid on What the Clock Said.

(Special to The Times) Edmundston, N. B., March 14.—The second week of the St. Pierre murder trial being held here was opened this morning with the placing of Frank Carter on the stand by the defence.

The witness, who is twenty years old and employed at the Transcontinental Hotel, said he was with the first two witnesses for the defence when they met St. Pierre on the night of the murder.

He said they left the house between 9 and 9:30. It was a little after nine, he said, that he saw St. Pierre in the street.

He said he first saw St. Pierre near Michael's fence, and met him in front of Joe Sedro's house. The girls passed him, he said, and he saw St. Pierre.

He said he saw St. Pierre in the street, and he saw him in the street again. He said he saw St. Pierre in the street, and he saw him in the street again.

He said he saw St. Pierre in the street, and he saw him in the street again. He said he saw St. Pierre in the street, and he saw him in the street again.

He said he saw St. Pierre in the street, and he saw him in the street again. He said he saw St. Pierre in the street, and he saw him in the street again.

He said he saw St. Pierre in the street, and he saw him in the street again. He said he saw St. Pierre in the street, and he saw him in the street again.

He said he saw St. Pierre in the street, and he saw him in the street again. He said he saw St. Pierre in the street, and he saw him in the street again.

He said he saw St. Pierre in the street, and he saw him in the street again. He said he saw St. Pierre in the street, and he saw him in the street again.

He said he saw St. Pierre in the street, and he saw him in the street again. He said he saw St. Pierre in the street, and he saw him in the street again.

He said he saw St. Pierre in the street, and he saw him in the street again. He said he saw St. Pierre in the street, and he saw him in the street again.

He said he saw St. Pierre in the street, and he saw him in the street again. He said he saw St. Pierre in the street, and he saw him in the street again.

IS AN ELECTION COMING SOON?

Standard Quotes Senator Thorne as Saying Government May Go to the Country 'Within a Few Months'

According to a Standard interview with Senator Thorne, a Dominion general election is to be expected "within a few months." The Standard prints the following:

"Mr. Wignome has made a very grievous mistake; if he had consulted his political friends he would never have got into this position." Such is the view of Senator Thorne of this city, who arrived home on Saturday from his senatorial duties at Ottawa.

"Believing, as I do," he continued, "that party government is in the best interests of the people of Canada, and that one should not sacrifice one's party's interests because of any feeling that exists against the party in power, I should be glad to play into the hands of our political enemies. The matter is entirely local and does not affect the province, because, no doubt, we will have a general election within a few months. Individual interests under the present government are not to be considered, but what is in the best interests of the party in New Brunswick and its principles in the whole of the Dominion."

Senator Thorne is a firm believer in the old two-party system for Canada. The best interests of all, he is satisfied, are not served by legislatures, either federal or provincial, in which there are groups or class parties. A return to the Conservative and Liberal camps as of old would give better results than the present situation.

He is not a member of either party, but he is a member of the Dominion Conservative party. He is a member of the Dominion Conservative party, and he is a member of the Dominion Conservative party.

He is not a member of either party, but he is a member of the Dominion Conservative party. He is a member of the Dominion Conservative party, and he is a member of the Dominion Conservative party.

He is not a member of either party, but he is a member of the Dominion Conservative party. He is a member of the Dominion Conservative party, and he is a member of the Dominion Conservative party.

He is not a member of either party, but he is a member of the Dominion Conservative party. He is a member of the Dominion Conservative party, and he is a member of the Dominion Conservative party.

He is not a member of either party, but he is a member of the Dominion Conservative party. He is a member of the Dominion Conservative party, and he is a member of the Dominion Conservative party.

He is not a member of either party, but he is a member of the Dominion Conservative party. He is a member of the Dominion Conservative party, and he is a member of the Dominion Conservative party.

He is not a member of either party, but he is a member of the Dominion Conservative party. He is a member of the Dominion Conservative party, and he is a member of the Dominion Conservative party.

He is not a member of either party, but he is a member of the Dominion Conservative party. He is a member of the Dominion Conservative party, and he is a member of the Dominion Conservative party.

He is not a member of either party, but he is a member of the Dominion Conservative party. He is a member of the Dominion Conservative party, and he is a member of the Dominion Conservative party.

He is not a member of either party, but he is a member of the Dominion Conservative party. He is a member of the Dominion Conservative party, and he is a member of the Dominion Conservative party.

He is not a member of either party, but he is a member of the Dominion Conservative party. He is a member of the Dominion Conservative party, and he is a member of the Dominion Conservative party.

He is not a member of either party, but he is a member of the Dominion Conservative party. He is a member of the Dominion Conservative party, and he is a member of the Dominion Conservative party.

Police and Students In Montreal Fight

Montreal, March 14.—The bon entente which has existed between the French-Canadian students and the police was broken on Saturday evening when about 200 of the former engaged a squad of police at the corner of St. Catherine and St. Denis streets.

The students were on their way to a theatre stopped a street car, and invited it to boot and stomp a strong force of police appeared. The sergeant ordered all students who had not paid their fares to leave the car, and as they protested, started to eject them.

When the sergeant seized one of the students another hit him in the face, and the battle was on. Clinging to his captive, the sergeant fought his way out of the car, followed by an excited mob of students. Finally the students released their comrade and disappeared in the crowds that had assembled.

There is no action that I can see that will settle the people of New Brunswick, or the senate can take that will rectify the wrong that has been done.

There is no action that I can see that will settle the people of New Brunswick, or the senate can take that will rectify the wrong that has been done.

There is no action that I can see that will settle the people of New Brunswick, or the senate can take that will rectify the wrong that has been done.

There is no action that I can see that will settle the people of New Brunswick, or the senate can take that will rectify the wrong that has been done.

There is no action that I can see that will settle the people of New Brunswick, or the senate can take that will rectify the wrong that has been done.

There is no action that I can see that will settle the people of New Brunswick, or the senate can take that will rectify the wrong that has been done.

There is no action that I can see that will settle the people of New Brunswick, or the senate can take that will rectify the wrong that has been done.

There is no action that I can see that will settle the people of New Brunswick, or the senate can take that will rectify the wrong that has been done.

There is no action that I can see that will settle the people of New Brunswick, or the senate can take that will rectify the wrong that has been done.

There is no action that I can see that will settle the people of New Brunswick, or the senate can take that will rectify the wrong that has been done.

There is no action that I can see that will settle the people of New Brunswick, or the senate can take that will rectify the wrong that has been done.

There is no action that I can see that will settle the people of New Brunswick, or the senate can take that will rectify the wrong that has been done.

There is no action that I can see that will settle the people of New Brunswick, or the senate can take that will rectify the wrong that has been done.

There is no action that I can see that will settle the people of New Brunswick, or the senate can take that will rectify the wrong that has been done.

There is no action that I can see that will settle the people of New Brunswick, or the senate can take that will rectify the wrong that has been done.

BAR "PUSSYFOOT" FROM THE ARMORIES IN WINDSOR, ONT.

Canadian or English Speakers Welcome, But Not "Foreign Agitators."

Windsor, Ont., March 14.—"Pussyfoot" Johnson, prohibition speaker, will not be permitted to make a speech on April 14, in the Windsor armories.

Lieut.-Col. S. C. Robinson of the 21st Regiment, who must authorize all permits for the use of the armories here, has informed the referendum committee, under whose auspices Mr. Johnson was to speak, that he will not give a permit.

"The referendum committee is welcome to use the armory for meetings, as it has in the past, but I will not countenance bringing foreign agitators from the United States to Canada," said Lieut.-Col. Robinson. "We have trouble enough without them. England did not want Johnson, and Canada does not want him. Canadian or English speakers will be welcome."

At dusk the meeting broke up and a great crowd swept through the streets, singing German songs and shouting "Now and then a tinkle of glass told of stones being thrown through a window. The crowd moved steadily toward a Jewish quarter of the city, but large forces of police had been summoned to bridges across the canal, over which the crowd must move to reach the Ghetto of Vienna. The rioters were turned back, but there was more or less rowdyism and street fighting before the police succeeded in dispersing the mob.

At dusk the meeting broke up and a great crowd swept through the streets, singing German songs and shouting "Now and then a tinkle of glass told of stones being thrown through a window. The crowd moved steadily toward a Jewish quarter of the city, but large forces of police had been summoned to bridges across the canal, over which the crowd must move to reach the Ghetto of Vienna. The rioters were turned back, but there was more or less rowdyism and street fighting before the police succeeded in dispersing the mob.

At dusk the meeting broke up and a great crowd swept through the streets, singing German songs and shouting "Now and then a tinkle of glass told of stones being thrown through a window. The crowd moved steadily toward a Jewish quarter of the city, but large forces of police had been summoned to bridges across the canal, over which the crowd must move to reach the Ghetto of Vienna. The rioters were turned back, but there was more or less rowdyism and street fighting before the police succeeded in dispersing the mob.

At dusk the meeting broke up and a great crowd swept through the streets, singing German songs and shouting "Now and then a tinkle of glass told of stones being thrown through a window. The crowd moved steadily toward a Jewish quarter of the city, but large forces of police had been summoned to bridges across the canal, over which the crowd must move to reach the Ghetto of Vienna. The rioters were turned back, but there was more or less rowdyism and street fighting before the police succeeded in dispersing the mob.

At dusk the meeting broke up and a great crowd swept through the streets, singing German songs and shouting "Now and then a tinkle of glass told of stones being thrown through a window. The crowd moved steadily toward a Jewish quarter of the city, but large forces of police had been summoned to bridges across the canal, over which the crowd must move to reach the Ghetto of Vienna. The rioters were turned back, but there was more or less rowdyism and street fighting before the police succeeded in dispersing the mob.

At dusk the meeting broke up and a great crowd swept through the streets, singing German songs and shouting "Now and then a tinkle of glass told of stones being thrown through a window. The crowd moved steadily toward a Jewish quarter of the city, but large forces of police had been summoned to bridges across the canal, over which the crowd must move to reach the Ghetto of Vienna. The rioters were turned back, but there was more or less rowdyism and street fighting before the police succeeded in dispersing the mob.

At dusk the meeting broke up and a great crowd swept through the streets, singing German songs and shouting "Now and then a tinkle of glass told of stones being thrown through a window. The crowd moved steadily toward a Jewish quarter of the city, but large forces of police had been summoned to bridges across the canal, over which the crowd must move to reach the Ghetto of Vienna. The rioters were turned back, but there was more or less rowdyism and street fighting before the police succeeded in dispersing the mob.

At dusk the meeting broke up and a great crowd swept through the streets, singing German songs and shouting "Now and then a tinkle of glass told of stones being thrown through a window. The crowd moved steadily toward a Jewish quarter of the city, but large forces of police had been summoned to bridges across the canal, over which the crowd must move to reach the Ghetto of Vienna. The rioters were turned back, but there was more or less rowdyism and street fighting before the police succeeded in dispersing the mob.

At dusk the meeting broke up and a great crowd swept through the streets, singing German songs and shouting "Now and then a tinkle of glass told of stones being thrown through a window. The crowd moved steadily toward a Jewish quarter of the city, but large forces of police had been summoned to bridges across the canal, over which the crowd must move to reach the Ghetto of Vienna. The rioters were turned back, but there was more or less rowdyism and street fighting before the police succeeded in dispersing the mob.

At dusk the meeting broke up and a great crowd swept through the streets, singing German songs and shouting "Now and then a tinkle of glass told of stones being thrown through a window. The crowd moved steadily toward a Jewish quarter of the city, but large forces of police had been summoned to bridges across the canal, over which the crowd must move to reach the Ghetto of Vienna. The rioters were turned back, but there was more or less rowdyism and street fighting before the police succeeded in dispersing the mob.

At dusk the meeting broke up and a great crowd swept through the streets, singing German songs and shouting "Now and then a tinkle of glass told of stones being thrown through a window. The crowd moved steadily toward a Jewish quarter of the city, but large forces of police had been summoned to bridges across the canal, over which the crowd must move to reach the Ghetto of Vienna. The rioters were turned back, but there was more or less rowdyism and street fighting before the police succeeded in dispersing the mob.

At dusk the meeting broke up and a great crowd swept through the streets, singing German songs and shouting "Now and then a tinkle of glass told of stones being thrown through a window. The crowd moved steadily toward a Jewish quarter of the city, but large forces of police had been summoned to bridges across the canal, over which the crowd must move to reach the Ghetto of Vienna. The rioters were turned back, but there was more or less rowdyism and street fighting before the police succeeded in dispersing the mob.

At dusk the meeting broke up and a great crowd swept through the streets, singing German songs and shouting "Now and then a tinkle of glass told of stones being thrown through a window. The crowd moved steadily toward a Jewish quarter of the city, but large forces of police had been summoned to bridges across the canal, over which the crowd must move to reach the Ghetto of Vienna. The rioters were turned back, but there was more or less rowdyism and street fighting before the police succeeded in dispersing the mob.

At dusk the meeting broke up and a great crowd swept through the streets, singing German songs and shouting "Now and then a tinkle of glass told of stones being thrown through a window. The crowd moved steadily toward a Jewish quarter of the city, but large forces of police had been summoned to bridges across the canal, over which the crowd must move to reach the Ghetto of Vienna. The rioters were turned back, but there was more or less rowdyism and street fighting before the police succeeded in dispersing the mob.

LOOKED SERIOUS IN VIENNA FOR TIME

Crowds Were Rushing on Hebrew Quarters

Police Checked Disorder in Anti-Jewish Demonstration—Trouble Started at Congress of Anti-Semitic Association.

Vienna, Mar. 14.—Anti-Jewish disorders which broke out here last night threatened for a time to develop into a serious situation, but the police late in the evening succeeded in scattering crowds in the streets and in preventing loss of life.

The disorder began at a congress of the Austrian anti-Semitic Association, which has been in session here for several days. During a sitting late yesterday, the congress, which is being attended by delegates from sixty-two chapters of the organization in Austria, and a few representatives of Bavarian and Hungarian anti-Jewish societies, were addressed by speakers who urged radical measures. They advocated pogroms, and the organization of Christians in Austria.

While this meeting was going on, large crowds assembled in the Rathaus Square, where similar addresses were given, speakers declaring that the Jews constituted a menace because of profligate living. Two Jewish students were found in a crowd, and were beaten and driven away.

At dusk the meeting broke up and a great crowd swept through the streets, singing German songs and shouting "Now and then a tinkle of glass told of stones being thrown through a window. The crowd moved steadily toward a Jewish quarter of the city, but large forces of police had been summoned to bridges across the canal, over which the crowd must move to reach the Ghetto of Vienna. The rioters were turned back, but there was more or less rowdyism and street fighting before the police succeeded in dispersing the mob.

At dusk the meeting broke up and a great crowd swept through the streets, singing German songs and shouting "Now and then a tinkle of glass told of stones being thrown through a window. The crowd moved steadily toward a Jewish quarter of the city, but large forces of police had been summoned to bridges across the canal, over which the crowd must move to reach the Ghetto of Vienna. The rioters were turned back, but there was more or less rowdyism and street fighting before the police succeeded in dispersing the mob.

At dusk the meeting broke up and a great crowd swept through the streets, singing German songs and shouting "Now and then a tinkle of glass told of stones being thrown through a window. The crowd moved steadily toward a Jewish quarter of the city, but large forces of police had been summoned to bridges across the canal, over which the crowd must move to reach the Ghetto of Vienna. The rioters were turned back, but there was more or less rowdyism and street fighting before the police succeeded in dispersing the mob.

At dusk the meeting broke up and a great crowd swept through the streets, singing German songs and shouting "Now and then a tinkle of glass told of stones being thrown through a window. The crowd moved steadily toward a Jewish quarter of the city, but large forces of police had been summoned to bridges across the canal, over which the crowd must move to reach the Ghetto of Vienna. The rioters were turned back, but there was more or less rowdyism and street fighting before the police succeeded in dispersing the mob.

At dusk the meeting broke up and a great crowd swept through the streets, singing German songs and shouting "Now and then a tinkle of glass told of stones being thrown through a window. The crowd moved steadily toward a Jewish quarter of the city, but large forces of police had been summoned to bridges across the canal, over which the crowd must move to reach the Ghetto of Vienna. The rioters were turned back, but there was more or less rowdyism and street fighting before the police succeeded in dispersing the mob.

At dusk the meeting broke up and a great crowd swept through the streets, singing German songs and shouting "Now and then a tinkle of glass told of stones being thrown through a window. The crowd moved steadily toward a Jewish quarter of the city, but large forces of police had been summoned to bridges across the canal, over which the crowd must move to reach the Ghetto of Vienna. The rioters were turned back, but there was more or less rowdyism and street fighting before the police succeeded in dispersing the mob.

At dusk the meeting broke up and a great crowd swept through the streets, singing German songs and shouting "Now and then a tinkle of glass told of stones being thrown through a window. The crowd moved steadily toward a Jewish quarter of the city, but large forces of police had been summoned to bridges across the canal, over which the crowd must move to reach the Ghetto of Vienna. The rioters were turned back, but there was more or less rowdyism and street fighting before the police succeeded in dispersing the mob.

At dusk the meeting broke up and a great crowd swept through the streets, singing German songs and shouting "Now and then a tinkle of glass told of stones being thrown through a window. The crowd moved steadily toward a Jewish quarter of the city, but large forces of police had been summoned to bridges across the canal, over which the crowd must move to reach the Ghetto of Vienna. The rioters were turned back, but there was more or less rowdyism and street fighting before the police succeeded in dispersing the mob.

At dusk the meeting broke up and a great crowd swept through the streets, singing German songs and shouting "Now and then a tinkle of glass told of stones being thrown through a window. The crowd moved steadily toward a Jewish quarter of the city, but large forces of police had been summoned to bridges across the canal, over which the crowd must move to reach the Ghetto of Vienna. The rioters were turned back, but there was more or less rowdyism and street fighting before the police succeeded in dispersing the mob.

At dusk the meeting broke up and a great crowd swept through the streets, singing German songs and shouting "Now and then a tinkle of glass told of stones being thrown through a window. The crowd moved steadily toward a Jewish quarter of the city, but large forces of police had been summoned to bridges across the canal, over which the crowd must move to reach the Ghetto of Vienna. The rioters were turned back, but there was more or less rowdyism and street fighting before the police succeeded in dispersing the mob.

At dusk the meeting broke up and a great crowd swept through the streets, singing German songs and shouting "Now and then a tinkle of glass told of stones being thrown through a window. The crowd moved steadily toward a Jewish quarter of the city, but large forces of police had been summoned to bridges across the canal, over which the crowd must move to reach the Ghetto of Vienna. The rioters were turned back, but there was more or less rowdyism and street fighting before the police succeeded in dispersing the mob.

At dusk the meeting broke up and a great crowd swept through the streets, singing German songs and shouting "Now and then a tinkle of glass told of stones being thrown through a window. The crowd moved steadily toward a Jewish quarter of the city, but large forces of police had been summoned to bridges across the canal, over which the crowd must move to reach the Ghetto of Vienna. The rioters were turned back, but there was more or less rowdyism and street fighting before the police succeeded in dispersing the mob.

At dusk the meeting broke up and a great crowd swept through the streets, singing German songs and shouting "Now and then a tinkle of glass told of stones being thrown through a window. The crowd moved steadily toward a Jewish quarter of the city, but large forces of police had been summoned to bridges across the canal, over which the crowd must move to reach the Ghetto of Vienna. The rioters were turned back, but there was more or less rowdyism and street fighting before the police succeeded in dispersing the mob.

THREE HOMERS FOR BABE RUTH

Six Hits in Six Times Up In Shreveport—Zbyszko and Stetcher to Wrestle Tonight

New York, March 14.—During a game at Shreveport, yesterday, in which the New York Americans defeated the local club, 21 to 3, "Babe" Ruth got three home runs and three singles in six times up.

He stole two bases and performed brilliantly at first base.

According to a Standard interview with Senator Thorne, a Dominion general election is to be expected "within a few months." The Standard prints the following:

"Mr. Wignome has made a very grievous mistake; if he had consulted his political friends he would never have got into this position." Such is the view of Senator Thorne of this city, who arrived home on Saturday from his senatorial duties at Ottawa.

"Believing, as I do," he continued, "that party government is in the best interests of the people of Canada, and that one should not sacrifice one's party's interests because of any feeling that exists against the party in power, I should be glad to play into the hands of our political enemies. The matter is entirely local and does not affect the province, because, no doubt, we will have a general election within a few months. Individual interests under the present government are not to be considered, but what is in the best interests of the party in New Brunswick and its principles in the whole of the Dominion."

Senator Thorne is a firm believer in the old two-party system for Canada. The best interests of all, he is satisfied, are not served by legislatures, either federal or provincial, in which there are groups or class parties. A return to the Conservative and Liberal camps as of old would give better results than the present situation.

He is not a member of either party, but he is a member of the Dominion Conservative party. He is a member of the Dominion Conservative party, and he is a member of the Dominion Conservative party.

He is not a member of either party, but he is a member of the Dominion Conservative party. He is a member of the Dominion Conservative party, and he is a member of the Dominion Conservative party.

He is not a member of either party, but he is a member of the Dominion Conservative party. He is a member of the Dominion Conservative party, and he is a member of the Dominion Conservative party.

He is not a member of either party, but he is a member of the Dominion Conservative party. He is a member of the Dominion Conservative party, and he is a member of the Dominion Conservative party.

He is not a member of either party, but he is a member of the Dominion Conservative party. He is a member of the Dominion Conservative party, and he is a member of the Dominion Conservative party.

He is not a member of either party, but he is a member of the Dominion Conservative party. He is a member of the Dominion Conservative party, and he is a member of the Dominion Conservative party.

He is not a member of either party, but he is a member of the Dominion Conservative party. He is a member of the Dominion Conservative party, and he is a member of the Dominion Conservative party.

He is not a member of either party, but he is a member of the Dominion Conservative party. He is a member of the Dominion Conservative party, and he is a member of the Dominion Conservative party.

He is not a member of either party, but he is a member of the Dominion Conservative party. He is a member of the Dominion Conservative party, and he is a member of the Dominion Conservative party.

ENGLAND WILL COME THROUGH

Sir George E. Foster on Trying Time of Present

Says Lid Lifted From Infernal Regions and Imps Loosed and Spread Rebellion—Declares Canada Can Help Much.

Ottawa, March 14.—Recognizing that such a crisis as at present exists had never before and might never again threaten the unity of the British empire, Sir George E. Foster, took an optimistic view in addressing an overflow audience at a concert of the army and navy veterans here last night.

"Never," he declared, "had the devil's prophecies been so strong, so shrewd, so imbued with anarchy and revolution as at present. The lid had been lifted from the door of hell, and the imps, loosed from captivity, had spread rebellion, plotting clan against clan, community against community, class against class and country against country."

Many parts of the British empire were threatened—Ireland, Egypt, India, and even England herself. But England's troubles were not confined only to the empire. The war had not ended when the Kaiser abdicated, and the international alliances made during the course of the struggle were still necessitating the expenditure of men and money in the effort to attain a lasting peace.

Never had a nation contracted such enormous financial obligations. Never had such gigantic sums been spent by any one nation during the same period of time as by England in the great war. But England would come through. There would come a day when the dark and lurid clouds of war would give place once more to the sun of happiness, prosperity and contentment.

With impassioned oratory Sir George contended the thoughtful men and women of Canada to consider the problems of the empire, to think over the burden of responsibilities confronting England, and to help to solve these problems by facing the questions with clear heads and broad minds. He said that the undivided support of Canada, England would be enabled to bind the bonds of empire even more strongly than ever before.

At dusk the meeting broke up and a great crowd swept through the streets, singing German songs and shouting "Now and then a tinkle of glass told of stones being thrown through a window. The crowd moved steadily toward a Jewish quarter of the city, but large forces of police had been summoned to bridges across the canal, over which the crowd must move to reach the Ghetto of Vienna. The rioters were turned back, but there was more or less rowdyism and street fighting before the police succeeded in dispersing the mob.

At dusk the meeting broke up and a great crowd swept through the streets, singing German songs and shouting "Now and then a tinkle of glass told of stones being thrown through a window. The crowd moved steadily toward a Jewish quarter of the city, but large forces of police had been summoned to bridges across the canal, over which the crowd must move to reach the Ghetto of Vienna. The rioters were turned back, but there was more or less rowdyism and street fighting before the police succeeded in dispersing the mob.