WILLING TO ENLIST

AS BRIGADIER GENERAL Boston, Mass., June 18—A man giving the name of J. E. Murphy walked into in the army for a brigadier-general. The officers assured him there was, and Murphy told them he was a Canadian, thirty-three years of age, who had served three years in Mexico under General Pasquale Orozco, with the rank of brigadier-general

After a physical examination he was rejected because of web toes.

Murphy refused to be discouraged, however, and said he would go to Canada and try recruiting offices there until he was accepted.

FOR RED CROSS. The Canadian Red Cross Society has The Canadian Red Cross Society has made an estimate of the amount of money that will be needed to carry on its work during the year, and has found the amount to be $4,000,000. An apportionment to each province has been made and New Brunswick is asked to raise $100,000. At a meeting of the special appeals committee of the society yesterday afternoon a resolution was passed to the effect that representatives of the different societies of St. John be asked to meet in the board of trade asked to meet in the board of trade
