CONDENSED DESPATCHES

St. Johns, Nfld., May 3—The British freight steamer Glace Bay went ashore in a fog near Cape Race yesterday and will probably be a total loss. Captain Plumb and the crew of forty-four men, landed safely on the cliffs. The Glace Bay was in ballast from Sydney to Wabana. She was used principally as an ore carrier. Her tonnage was 3,380.

IS CRITICAL.

The condition of Thomas Graham who was severely injured at West Side this week, was reported this afternoon to be more critical and his chances of recovery are slight.

Indistoners have ordered the suspension of Chief of Police Bell on charge of drinking while on duty.

Paris, May 3—An army airman pamed Bellini fell while flying at Versailles today and was killed.

Sacramento, Cal., May 3—The administration anti-alien landholding bill passed the senate this morning. The futility of Secretary Bryan's mission was shown in the vote of his own party. Nine of the ten democrats voted contrary to the advice which he brought from President Wilson.

Vancouver, B. C., May 3—Despatches from the Okanagan Valley deny the reports of frost damage and affirm there is every prospect of bumper fruit crops.
