RECENT DEATHS

The death occurred last evening at his residence, 238 Tower street, of Captain Alexander Mahony, after a lingering illness. Captain Mahony was a retired sea captain who had sailed out of St. John for many years. He is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Ella Benson, daughter of the late J. Benson, of this city, and by one son, Benson J. Mahony, druggist.

The funeral will take place tomorrow at 2:30 p. m., from the late residence, 238 Tower street, West End.

The death of Mrs. Isabella Moore occurred at Long Reach on Saturday after a brief illness. Mrs. Moore was in the 73rd year of her age, and for the greater part of her life resided at Long Reach. She is survived by two sons, five daughters and eighteen grandchildren and a great host of friends. The sons are: Walter, at home, and Albert, William of this city. The daughters are: Mrs. A. Dunlop, Mrs. F. W. Johnson, Mrs. George Wilson, Mrs. Thomas Macaulay, all of this city, and Alma, at home. The funeral will take place this morning at 11:30 from her late residence.

The death of Mary Cameron, only surviving daughter of the late Donald A. Cameron, took place yesterday afternoon at her home, 1130 Prince William street, after a brief illness. Mrs. Cameron was a prominent member of St. Andrew's church and had been closely identified with its activities. She is survived by three brothers, John, of Fredericton; Augustus, of St. Stephen, and Robert K. O'Leary, and a sister, Mrs. J. H. Cameron, of St. John. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock from the residence of her brother, R. K. Cameron, 86 Mecklenburg street. The casket will be entered at the house.

The death of Andrew J. O'Leary took place at a late hour last night after a sickness of only a few days. He was the third son of Helen and the late James O'Leary, and is survived by his mother and three brothers—John, Timothy and Harry, of St. John.

William Pickard, who died recently at Keswick Bridge, had returned from California only in June last. He was a seafaring man and had made a number of trips to the Orient. He was possessed of considerable property, which he had divided among his wife, his daughter, Miss Mary Pickard, and his two sons, Richard and Fred. He was a member of the St. John's Athletic Club and was a very popular man in his community.

The death of Mrs. Emma L. Smith, wife of George B. Smith, occurred on Monday at her home, Maryville, in the forty-fifth year of her age. Besides her husband, two sons and one daughter survive. They are Charles, of Richmond Corner, Clarence, of Maryville, and Bessie, at home.

The death of Mrs. Mary A. Cox, wife of T. Cox, lumber operator of Fredericton, occurred on Sunday. She was fifty-nine years old. Besides her husband, there survive a son and a daughter, Harry and Louise, two sons and three daughters—Mrs. J. Corbin, of St. Leonard's; Mrs. Thos. Dwyer, of Fredericton; and Mrs. Martin, of Hibbing, Minn., and Robert and George Martin, of St. Leonard's.

In Richbourg on Saturday evening Miss Mayne Bernard, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bernard, died in the 24th year of her age. She leaves behind her father and mother, three sisters, Mrs. E. S. Scott, of Moncton; Miss Mabel, graduate nurse of Lowell, Mass., and Miss Gertrude, at home; and two brothers, John and Raymond, at home.

CHANGED HIS DRINK.
A restaurant keeper hung out this sign: "Coffee, Such as Mother Used to Make." One morning a man entered the cafe, and as the waiter approached him he inquired, pointing to the sign: "Is your coffee really such as mother used to make?" "It is, sir," replied the waiter condescendingly. "Then," said the man, with a reminiscent look, "give me a cup of tea."

A REVERSIBLE PROVERB.
"Too bad," Smartly always has such a horrible weather for her afternoon tea!" "Yes," she never puts but it rains."

A COUNTER QUESTION.
"Nannette, dearest, can you cook?" "No, Willoughby, darling. Can you?"

A SACKVILLE INDUSTRY

One of the new industries of town that has "made good" in the parlance of the street, is the Sackville Woodworkers' Limited, organized only five years ago. The factory has now packed ready for shipment a large and valuable order for the Dutch Reform Church at East London, South Africa. This order was received several weeks ago and has entailed the making of a great number of wooden coffins. The factory will immediately start on the interior fitting and painting of another church at Ventersburg, South Africa. This is a larger and more costly job than the last, and the plans and specifications call for a superior class of work, a great deal of which is to be of oak. The work will be sent all finished, ready to set up, including stained glass, and hardware fittings. This job is to be completed ready for shipment by the first of the month.

Among other large orders turned out by the factory this summer is the coffin for the late Mr. J. H. Cameron, of St. John, N. B., all of which was in quarters oak, and the door and window frames, and the interior finish of the new public building being erected by the government at Parramatta, N. S. W. The coffin was also turned out and shipped all outside and inside mill work for one of the new Grand Trunk Pacific stations.

BRILLIANT BORDER WEDDING.
A brilliant social event was the marriage of Miss Alice Rhoda Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Young, of Brookline, Mass., and Stephen N. B. and Charles Philip LeRoy of Brookline, Mass., which took place on Saturday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, at the Union church in Clarendon, Rev. Charles LeRoy, officiating. The church was handsomely decorated, and the handsome costumes of those in attendance added to the brilliancy of the affair. The wedding march was played by Prof. B. L. Whippley, of Eastport. The bride's dress was of white satin with duchesse lace. She wore a veil of tulle and carried a shawl bouquet of lilies of the valley. Miss Georgia Emma Young, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a dress of green marquisette over white silk, with white hat, and carried a bouquet of lilies. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Oliver Wyman of Winchester, Mass., Miss Mary Brigham of Brookline, Miss Mildred Todd and Miss Helen MacNichol of St. Stephen. The groomsmen were Philip Verplanck, 2nd, of Brookline, the bride's cousin, Messrs. Duncan and John Wright and Rodney Bloom of Brookline, and Lewis Wadsworth, Fred W. and Kenneth Young.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents in St. Stephen. The parlor decorations were in asparagus and white pinks, with an arch of the same from which was suspended a wedding bell beneath which the couple stood. The dining room was decorated with pink roses, the table with asparagus ferns and pink ribbons. Mrs. L. L. Wadsworth and Mrs. N. Mark Mills were in charge, and were assisted by Miss Pauline Marion Curran presiding at the punch table. The groom's gift to his bride was a sapphire and pearl pin, to the maid of honor a pearl pendant and to the bridesmaids gold pins set with pearls.

PRIZE IT WHEREVER I SEE A CHANCE.
Messrs. Dearborn & Co., St. John, N. B. Dear Sirs, use your Baking Powder! Most the time and praise it wherever I see a chance. In fact I would not use any other so long as I can get yours.

NICKELS OPEN THE WEEK WITH GOOD THINGS IN PICTURES.
The Nickel opened the week with a very attractive series of motion pictures and they were enjoyed by large gatherings of patrons. The programme opens with an exceptionally fine selection of pictures of recent events in the world. Then comes a solo by Tom Waterall, one of the best he has yet given us and showing his musical voice to good advantage. The first picture played is The Nickel, an Italian and involves diet and repentance. It is well acted.
