There are a great many places and occasions when the possibility of getting extra heat immediately effects an economy by decreasing the discomfort of the worker. In the office, in the early morning or late at night, before or after the steamheat is on, it is of importance to have extra heat in the boiler's outside office, in the shipping room, in the checker's shop, in the exposed lofts, in railroad stations, in studios, the is often a necessity. It is safe, smokeless and odorless. Apply a match, and it gives heat quickly. With four quarts of oil it burns nine hours. It has a cool handle and a damper top. An indicator always shows the amount of oil in the tank. The filler-cap it is put in like a cork in a bottle, and is attached to the tank by a chain.

The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged, because of a new device in construction, and consequently, it can always be easily unscrewed in an instant for reworking.

BRANDS HERSELF IN COURT TO SAVE LIFE OF HER HUSBAND

MRS. MENLO E. MOORE AND FOUR YEAR-OLD SON GAYLE
Vincennes, Ind., Dec. 13.—To save her husband, who is accused of murder, Mrs. Menlo E. Moore, wife of the manager of a chain of theatres, branded her own face before a crowded court room and gave a recital of her persecution by Charles Gibson, her husband's victim, that paralleled the story told by Edwin Shaw in his effort to save Harry Thaw.

Gibson was a wealthy oil-well operator, with an office in the same building as Moore. Mrs. Moore testified that Gibson pursued her persistently. He told her last summer that her husband was attentive to other women, and offered to prove it if he would accompany him to a certain house in the country. He declared her husband had an appointment there with a woman. She accompanied him to the place, she said, but her husband was not there. Then came the most dramatic scene ever witnessed in a court room in this city. Her voice choked by sobs which she bravely tried to repress, the wife told in detail of her experiences.

Mrs. Moore broke down and buried her face in her hands. Her father and mother,

SOCIETY WOMEN FIND SMUGGLING VERY EXPENSIVE

Mrs. Adriance's Necklace, Worth $8,000, Has Cost Her $25,000; Mrs. Shonts', $30,000 Worth of Gems, Held by Customs

New York, Dec. 13.—A pearl necklace worth $8,000 has cost Mrs. Adriance, of Poughkeepsie, more than $25,000 because she attempted to smuggle it into the country on her return from Europe last August. The terms of the settlement in the case were announced today by William Loeb, Jr., collector of the port.

Mrs. Adriance made no mention of the necklace in her declaration. The custom examiners were suspicious and her clothing was searched. The necklace was found, concealed in the lining of her hat. It and some articles of clothing not mentioned in the declaration were seized and Mrs. Adriance was indicted for smuggling. She pleaded guilty, and was fined $5,000.

To regain her necklace, Mrs. Adriance was compelled to pay full freight value of the jewels, about $8,000, in addition to the duty, which was about $4,000 more. These amounts, together with the $5,000 originally paid for the necklace, the $8,000 fine and counsel fees make the total cost of the necklace more than $25,000.

Mrs. Theodore P. Shonts, wife of the president of the Interborough Rapid Transit Company, from whom jewels worth $30,000 were taken, when she arrived from Europe last week, was too ill to appear for a hearing today. Mr. Shonts told Mr. Loeb that his wife did not believe the gems were dutiable, because she had obtained them in exchange for other articles of hers on which she had once paid duty. Collector Loeb told Mr. Shonts he would make known his decision tomorrow.

BIDDING LIVELY FOR EFFECTS OF MISSING BOSTON "BOY BROKER"

Boston, Mass., Dec. 12.—More than 400 men and women today thronged the sales rooms of a Roxbury storage warehouse to attend the auction sale of the personal effects of Robert T. Davis, the "boy broker," who recently disappeared, leaving behind him many victims of his alleged high finance methods.

Bidding was lively for most of the articles offered, and more than $5,000 was realized. A seven seated touring car, which Davis presented to his mother about a year ago, was knocked down to H. J. H. for $1,000. These initials are said to represent H. J. Harriman to satisfy whose mortgage for $11,500, the sale was held.

CHARLOTTETOWN CHILD BURNED TO DEATH

Charlottetown, Dec. 12.—(Special)—Edna Henry, the four-year-old daughter of Leslie G. Henry, was so severely burned that she died in the Charlottetown hospital this afternoon.

The little girl was playing with two of John W. Young's children, in Mr. Young's house last night, having been sent there, while Mrs. Young was visiting Mrs. Henry, who is ill. The children were playing too near the stove and Edna's clothing took fire. She ran screaming into the pantry. Lorne Young, a newspaper reporter, who was in bed at the time, was awakened by the screams and ran down stairs. He threw a mat around the little girl and extinguished the fire. His hands and feet were burned severely. The girl died in two hours.

Halifax, Dec. 12.—(Special)—Six days and forty-five minutes from Avonmouth to Halifax, the Canadian Northern liner Royal George arrived in port tonight on her maiden trip to Halifax. The steamer brought 24 passengers, 541 sacks of mail and 62 tons of cargo.

DR. PARKIN SCORES BOURASSA AND HIS FOLLOWERS

Warns Them That Their Course May Isolate Quebec from the Rest of the Empire and Shatter French-Canadian Influence

Montreal, Dec. 12.—A clear note of warning was today sounded by Dr. G. R. Parkin, C. M. G., against the Nationalist and anti-English tendencies which are being especially in certain portions of Canada, and especially in the province of Quebec, at the present time.

While Dr. Parkin, in addressing the Women's Canadian Club, chose the story of Cecil Rhodes and his work for the empire as the basis of his argument, he naturally led him to speak as the ardent protagonist of imperial sentiment and work, which has long been called provincialism.

"After dealing at length with Rhodes' personality, ideals and career, as well as the work he has done for the empire," Dr. Parkin said while in Montreal, and this province he must deal with two subjects, anti-imperial sentiment, and the so-called "Nationalist" movement, which latter, he intimated, might with better justice be called provincialism.

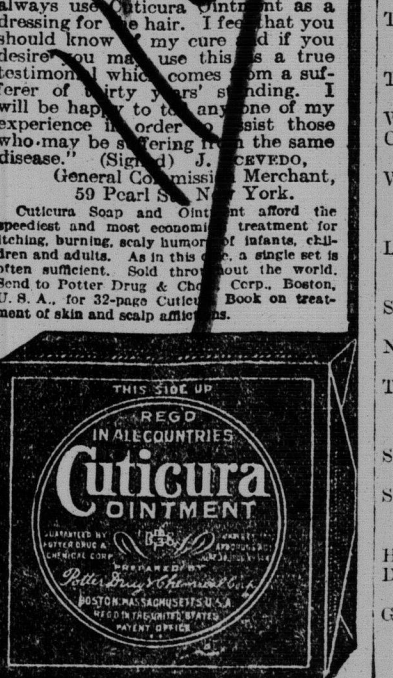

He plainly warned Mr. Bourassa and his followers that if they succeeded in isolating Quebec from the rest of the empire, it would be the end of the province.

Cured Eczema and Dandruff

"I am pleased to inform you that I have been cured by Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. Since I was a boy I have suffered with dandruff, not only from the itching, but from the disagreeable appearance in a social form all over my head. I had to brush it off my clothes all day long. I used every kind of treatment, but nothing cured me. I had to go to a doctor, but he only told me to use Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. They had the most surprising results for I had used only one box of Cuticura Ointment and a single cake of Cuticura Soap and I was cured. The eczema and dandruff were gone and my hair grew again."

"I can assure you that as long as I live no cure will be as good as Cuticura. I will use it as long as I live. I will always use Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment as a dressing for the hair. I feel that you should know my cure if you desire to use this as a true testimonial. I am a Merchant, 10 Pearl Street, New York."

Cuticura Soap and Ointment afford the speediest and most economical treatment for itching, burning, scaly humors of infants, children and adults. As in this case a single cake is often sufficient. Send three-cent note to Peter Duggan & Co., 10 Pearl St., New York, U. S. A., for 32-page Cuticura Book on treatment of skin and scalp affections.

ONTARIO BILL FOR WOMAN SUFFRAGE

Toronto, Dec. 12.—The prospects are that the provincial legislature will convene on March 9th, 1911, and that it will be unusually busy, although no official announcement has been made regarding the date or the plans of the government. Preparations for the announcement, however, are being made by the members and for the committee, but it is not thought that this will interfere with the progress of the work.

Already a flood of applications for private legislation is pouring in upon the clerk of the house. A majority of these prospective measures are of a routine character and have to do with local and municipal problems. The Toronto hospital for sick children and the Church of the Disciples at St. Thomas have applied for legislation to amend their acts of incorporation to enable them to hold lands bequeathed to them in unlimited form.

Other prospective legislation includes a bill for woman suffrage in the province, an amendment to the companies act to do away with wildest speculation, provision for the establishment of a provincial license commission, plans for the further development of Northern Ontario, provision for floating a loan to meet capital expenditure and provision for the regulation of the milk supply.

PATENTS REACH NEARLY TO MILLION MARK

Washington, Dec. 12.—The United States Patent Office has just issued patent 977,421. At the present rate of issue the one millionth patent will be granted early in July 1911, says Assistant Commissioner of Patents Billings.

"I believe the No. 1,000,000 will be issued just about on the one hundred and twenty-fifth anniversary of the first patent ever issued. This was in 1790. The patentee of the first United States patent which was a device for making pearl and pot ashes, was Samuel Hopkins, and the patent was dated July 31, 1790. Only two other patents were granted that year. In 1791 there were thirty-three patents issued. Now for the fiscal year 1910 there were 37,000 patents granted."
