A NYACK SHOEMAKER SHOTS MOTHER AND DAUGHTER.

He secures Admission to a Widow's Home and Then Coolly Tries to Murder Her—Robbery His Motive—Before He Goes Away He Sets the House on Fire—Quietly Arrested.

New York, March 8.—Joseph Stone, who is also known as Joseph Kana, one of the characters of Nyack, is lodged in a city jail on charges of attempting to murder Mrs. Bridget Armstrong and her daughter Eliza, early this morning, at their home, and afterward setting fire to their house.

Mrs. Armstrong is a widow, 62 years old. She lives with her daughter, who is 19 years old, in a little house in Pierpont avenue.

On Saturday night she had some sewing to do, and she sat up until after midnight to finish it. Her daughter had gone upstairs to bed.

A few minutes before 1 o'clock the girl was awakened by hearing her mother screaming, and she jumped out of bed and ran downstairs in her night clothes.

At the foot of the stairs a man, whom she recognized as Stone, seized her by the arm with his left hand, while with his right he held a pistol close to her face and fired. The bullet went through her chest.

The girl saw her mother lying on the floor with blood streaming from a wound in the face. She tried to reach the door, which is directly at the foot of the stairs. Stone headed her off and locked the door. She ran into an adjoining room, which she had used as a closet, and she jumped out of a window and ran as fast as she could to Dr. E. H. Maynard's house, which is a half-mile north of her home.

Her brother Edward works for the doctor. She had no money but a night-dress. She took leave of her mother and went to the doctor's house.

When they reached the house smoke was pouring out of the door and the frightened half of their wife. They did not stop, but ran to the house and set it on fire. They found their mother there conscious but hardly able to stand. They started off with her for her home. Before they got there three constables had arrived, and with the help of a hundred neighbors had been attracted by the commotion. Stone had put out the fire.

Mrs. Armstrong told her story of the attack. She says she and her sister were sitting by the table about 1 o'clock when some one knocked at the door. In answer to an inquiry the person on the outside said that Joseph Stone had shot her, and wanted to take a package for Mrs. Stone, a neighbor. The door was then opened and he held a pistol on Mrs. Armstrong's head.

"As I held out my hand for a package which I thought he had," Mrs. Armstrong continues, "he hit my head with the pistol, and he pushed me from the chair and he pulled a pistol from his pocket. He held my chin up for three times, and then I screamed and Eliza came down stairs. He let go of me and went for her.

He dropped his pistol and I threw it behind the woodbox. He came running back into the room looking for his pistol. He took hold of my arm, and ran his hand down the bosom of my dress. He was looking for my purse, I got my hand on the purse and threw it under the table.

Then he took the lighted lamp and threw it on the bed. After this he ran away. Stone is 40 years old. Everyone in Nyack knows him. He is very effeminate in his manner. He is a shoemaker, and has been employed in A. A. Jackson's factory. He always wears a decent hat with a long brim. He has spent most of his money buying candy for children.

Raising Wolves for the Bounty. BY TELEGRAPH TO THE GAZETTE. ST. PAUL, Minn., March 10.—The legislative committee on expenditures unceremoniously rejected a bill to pay a bounty of $2.00 on each wolf killed. It was found that it had cost the state $30,000 the last season for wolf bounties.

As the Founder of the Empire. BY TELEGRAPH TO THE GAZETTE. BIRMINGHAM, March 10.—Prince Bismarck's candidature for Governor of the Empire is the principal topic of discussion in political circles and it is freely asserted that the decision looks embarrassed over his government. The Zetting admits that although the national liberals differ on almost every important feature of Bismarck's policy, he will be elected as the founder of the empire.

Rhode Island Republicans. BY TELEGRAPH TO THE GAZETTE. PROVIDENCE, R. I., March 10.—A meeting of the republican state convention today H. W. Ladd was nominated for Governor, Lyman B. Cuff for lieutenant Governor, Daniel R. Ballou, for Attorney General, George H. Uter, Secretary of State and T. Mansfield Sealby general treasurer.

Providence, March 10.—Arthur Hanson, the English boy who shot his chum, Arthur Stapleton, three times last night, was bound over to the June common pleas court today. Stapleton will recover.

A TERRIBLE RAILROAD ACCIDENT NEAR HAVANA, ILL.

Passenger Train Leaves the Track at a Switch—One Person Killed and a Large Number Injured—Several Clothed Travelers Go Barefoot Through Ice and Snow to the Station.

Pezoa, Ill., March 8.—The fast passenger train of the Jacksonville Southern railroad over the Alton, Tipton & Santa Fe, which left here at 1:30 this morning, met with a terrible accident at Havana, 4 miles south of Pezoa.

During the storm which raged last night, the train, which consisted of a engine, a coach, chair car and two sleepers, was an hour and a half late.

At Havana there is a sharp curve a mile and a half from the depot, and the engine struck the curve at the switch and left the track. All the cars followed pling and crashing over the roof of the roof of the station and through the roof of the station.

Freeman Sallee was instantly killed. Engineer George Birkenhead of this city had one arm and a leg cut off.

The others injured are: Edward Bennett, Peoria, burned and badly bruised; Walter Conover, Mantio, Ill., left arm torn out and face injured; Charles McCarver, Peoria, burned and badly bruised; Miss Emma Beach, St. Louis, seriously bruised; Express Menard, Peoria, burned and badly bruised; Frank P. Lewis, Peoria, seriously jammed in the breast.

There was a unusual rise of tide and all the channel steamers had boisterous passages. Ever in the harbor, the water was so rough that it was difficult to hold vessels to their moorings.

STORMS RAGING IN AND ABOUT LONDON AT PRESENT.

The Justice Stephen Baxter Under Discouraged—Fearful Snow Bismarck the South of England—Dangerous in the Harbor.

LONDON, March 10.—Mr. Cobb, M. P., has published his correspondence with Mr. Smith, first Lord of the Treasury in regard to Justice Stephen. Mr. Smith says that he is not in possession of sufficient evidence to justify him in moving an address to the crown on the subject.

The news disapproves of Smith's attitude in the Justice Stephens matter. The Chronicle says, "Mr. Cobb must furnish Smith with specific facts, for it will be a terrible thing if Justice Stephens had to conduct a murder trial while these deadly rumors are about."

THE STANDARD, March 10.—The Standard asserts that Mr. Cobb is to be invited to the house of the Speaker to advise on the subject.

It thinks that Lord Colridge's opinion is the measure is sound.

BRITISH BAYING. LONDON, Mar. 10.—A terrible storm has been raging in Scotland and the north of England for a week past. While in the south of England the weather was mild, it is in the north that the storm is most felt.

THE SPROUILL FURN.—At the last of the Sprouill family, Henry Sprouill, Esq., died, leaving a small estate.

APPOINTMENTS.—Thomas Danney and Henry Wilson have received appointments in the postal service as letter carriers. Two more men will soon be appointed to similar positions.

COLLISION.—Charles Miller's small tugboat "Trotter" struck and damaged the schooner "Ontario" last morning. The tug had her smokestack upset and received slight damage.

SCHOOL FINE.—There was a slight fine in Munro's trunk factory this morning, which was accompanied without the aid of the firemen. In putting out the blaze, Mr. John J. Munro had one of his hands slightly injured.

WILLIAM CUNNINGHAM, is now acting as engineer on the ferry boat, in place of William Gray, resigned. No appointment has been made as yet, but the matter will be settled at a meeting of the ferry committee which takes place tomorrow afternoon.

THE YOUNG MEMORIAL committee met this afternoon and inspected two samples of freestone sent in by the contractors Messrs. McNeil and Connor. A dark colored stone from Wallace Harbor, N. S., and a light color variety from Donchester were shown. The darker stone was thought to be the most suitable.

THAT ALBION DEPARTURE.—Reports of a satisfactory character have been made to the GAZETTE that before leaving the city Stewart J. Hayes arranged a settlement with the ferry committee.

THE QUERRY.—J. M. Taylor's new schooner "Querry" will be launched from Stackhouse's yard, North end Thursday. Alex. Lang, rigger, put the spars into the new craft during yesterday and this morning. She is to be commanded by Captain Geo. E. Cripps, late of the schooner "Ontario". The Querry is to go through the falls and head for New York.

AN ADVERTISER Not to be Deceived.—It was availed, Scoble, when I heard that they had written at the M. C. A. meetings. "Oh, that's all right," they only write in prayer."
