Jersey City, for the arrival of a patrol wagon, early yesterday morning, when' the chicken reeled across the sidewalk, The prisoner's eyes buiged with fright. "Twe got 'em, sure," he said. The policeman arrested the intoxicat-ed chicken, too, and it was confined in a cell adjoining that occupied by the man until Mrs. Murphy, a jaintress, arrived at the Second Preciact station. She passed sentence on the dissipated bird and executed it herself with an axe in the back yard.

DESPERATE FIGHT WITH A BEAR Hartley Ogden and his father, of Shider Mountain, Kings county, on Saturday evening, Aug. 8, had an en-counter with a bear which nearly caused the death of Mr. Ogden senior. They were in the hay field and, seeing the animal approaching a grove near, attempted to keep him there or turn him back till a rifle, which had been sent for, arrived. They were armed with only their pitch forks. Mr. Og-den, sr., attacked the animal with his fork, and the bear sprang upon his as-saliant and bore him to the ground. A savage battle followed between the two men and Mr. Bruin, ended finally by the bear's throat being cut by a jack knife in the hands of Mr. Ogden, who is now recovering from the wounds received. 0 E ACROSS THE OCEAN IN A DORY.
