

valuable to my feet. So sensitive was my brain, that I had mistaken the sudden shock of the boat for the dreaded catastrophe. The bow, from the end of which a rope was dangling, was empty, and both pilots, made aware of the danger, were pulling with the eagerness...

to great extended breath and fascinated stare at the flaming vessel and fleeing pilot-boat, suddenly a pyramid of flame shot up from the hold of the ship, followed by a descending roar. I fell, and was knocked down I know not which; the boat rocked as if caught in a fierce eddy; next came the hiss and splash of numerous heavy bodies falling from a great height to the water; and then the hissing and rattling of a steam boiler, and the hissing and rattling of a steam boiler, and the hissing and rattling of a steam boiler...

to the printer and the priest. The Rev. Mr. C. has republished his correspondence with the Prime Minister, and has done so in a very judicious and able manner. It is a very interesting and valuable contribution to the history of the times. The correspondence shows the state of mind of the Prime Minister at that time, and the state of mind of the printer and the priest...

FROM THE LONDON PAPERS.

EXPECTED COMMERCIAL CRASH IN THE UNITED STATES.

Prudent men who know the dangers of commercial property, are beginning to look for the first signs of a coming crash in the United States. The inevitable failure of a general extension of credit, and the consequent depression of the market, are the signs which are being watched with the most anxious interest...

to do not believe that the Queen's Ministers will ever give her to put her signature to a document which would have the effect of placing the crown in the hands of the people. The Queen's Ministers will not do this, and the Queen will not do it either. The Queen's Ministers will not do this, and the Queen will not do it either...

DELINQUENT CHURCH SERVICES.

Mr. BEZANT, in his sermon on the 10th inst., delivered himself of the following, as an argument for the continuance of the grant which, in our opinion, was one of the very strongest arguments in his withdrawal...

to the above cannot even lay claim to originality. Mr. BEZANT has given the same argument, and has done so in a very judicious and able manner. It is a very interesting and valuable contribution to the history of the times. The correspondence shows the state of mind of the Prime Minister at that time, and the state of mind of the printer and the priest...

THE CATHOLIC.

THE ROMAN PROPAGANDA AGAINST POPISH PROCESSIONS.

Some few, a mere few indeed, of the old country journals, which have come to hand, have complained of the recent proclamation, and denounce it as an unauthorised and arbitrary proceeding. We do not recognise it in this light, but on the contrary we look upon it as a timely act, and one which the execution of recent events imperatively demanded...

to do not believe that the Queen's Ministers will ever give her to put her signature to a document which would have the effect of placing the crown in the hands of the people. The Queen's Ministers will not do this, and the Queen will not do it either. The Queen's Ministers will not do this, and the Queen will not do it either...

THE CANADIAN MUST NOT BE LOST OR GIVEN AWAY.

The vast sum of money which is soon to be raised by the sale of the Canadian, will be a great boon to the country. It will be a great boon to the country, and it will be a great boon to the country. It will be a great boon to the country, and it will be a great boon to the country...

to do not believe that the Queen's Ministers will ever give her to put her signature to a document which would have the effect of placing the crown in the hands of the people. The Queen's Ministers will not do this, and the Queen will not do it either. The Queen's Ministers will not do this, and the Queen will not do it either...

LIGHTNING RODS FOR HOUSES.

We extract the following article from the 'Edinburgh Review'. The extreme simplicity and economy of the apparatus, and the fact that it is a very simple and economical apparatus, and it is a very simple and economical apparatus...

to do not believe that the Queen's Ministers will ever give her to put her signature to a document which would have the effect of placing the crown in the hands of the people. The Queen's Ministers will not do this, and the Queen will not do it either. The Queen's Ministers will not do this, and the Queen will not do it either...

THE BURNING OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH.

The burning of the Catholic Church, which took place on the 10th inst., was a very sad and lamentable event. It was a very sad and lamentable event, and it was a very sad and lamentable event. It was a very sad and lamentable event, and it was a very sad and lamentable event...

to do not believe that the Queen's Ministers will ever give her to put her signature to a document which would have the effect of placing the crown in the hands of the people. The Queen's Ministers will not do this, and the Queen will not do it either. The Queen's Ministers will not do this, and the Queen will not do it either...

STILL LATER FROM ENGLAND!

The news from England is still very interesting and valuable. It shows the state of mind of the people, and the state of mind of the government. It shows the state of mind of the people, and the state of mind of the government. It shows the state of mind of the people, and the state of mind of the government...

to do not believe that the Queen's Ministers will ever give her to put her signature to a document which would have the effect of placing the crown in the hands of the people. The Queen's Ministers will not do this, and the Queen will not do it either. The Queen's Ministers will not do this, and the Queen will not do it either...

THE BURNING OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH.

The burning of the Catholic Church, which took place on the 10th inst., was a very sad and lamentable event. It was a very sad and lamentable event, and it was a very sad and lamentable event. It was a very sad and lamentable event, and it was a very sad and lamentable event...

to do not believe that the Queen's Ministers will ever give her to put her signature to a document which would have the effect of placing the crown in the hands of the people. The Queen's Ministers will not do this, and the Queen will not do it either. The Queen's Ministers will not do this, and the Queen will not do it either...

STILL LATER FROM ENGLAND!

The news from England is still very interesting and valuable. It shows the state of mind of the people, and the state of mind of the government. It shows the state of mind of the people, and the state of mind of the government. It shows the state of mind of the people, and the state of mind of the government...

to do not believe that the Queen's Ministers will ever give her to put her signature to a document which would have the effect of placing the crown in the hands of the people. The Queen's Ministers will not do this, and the Queen will not do it either. The Queen's Ministers will not do this, and the Queen will not do it either...

THE BURNING OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH.

The burning of the Catholic Church, which took place on the 10th inst., was a very sad and lamentable event. It was a very sad and lamentable event, and it was a very sad and lamentable event. It was a very sad and lamentable event, and it was a very sad and lamentable event...

to do not believe that the Queen's Ministers will ever give her to put her signature to a document which would have the effect of placing the crown in the hands of the people. The Queen's Ministers will not do this, and the Queen will not do it either. The Queen's Ministers will not do this, and the Queen will not do it either...

STILL LATER FROM ENGLAND!

The news from England is still very interesting and valuable. It shows the state of mind of the people, and the state of mind of the government. It shows the state of mind of the people, and the state of mind of the government. It shows the state of mind of the people, and the state of mind of the government...

to do not believe that the Queen's Ministers will ever give her to put her signature to a document which would have the effect of placing the crown in the hands of the people. The Queen's Ministers will not do this, and the Queen will not do it either. The Queen's Ministers will not do this, and the Queen will not do it either...