The death of Mr. James Skallish removes a well known man from Halifax. He was 60 years of age. The only son of Joseph Skallish (for many years in connection with the Provincial Secretary's office, under the old regime, both with Sir Rupert D. George and Joseph Howe as chiefs) James was early in life, apprenticed to a newspaper office, and worked in several of them. From almost childhood he was partially incapacitated from vigorous effort; but with all the strength and light with which he was endowed he worked faithfully and conscientiously throughout the city for many years as a distributor of almanacs, weekly publications, etc.
He lived with his sister, Miss Cassie Skallish, on Maitland street, and most faithfully was family affection exemplified in her tender care bestowed during a comparatively long life. James was honest and industrious; when health permitted a regular attendant at Brunswick street Methodist church, and it is probable that 800 lbs. of the whole population of Halifax knew and had a kindly salutation for him.

The surprise party given by Miss Ruggles and Messrs. McDonald and Robinson, at 87 Buckingham street, Thursday evening was a grand success.
A very pleasant evening was spent in dancing, with "This is truth the poet sings That a sorrow's crown of glory Is made of many happy things."

Isn't that what a woman thinks who finds herself practically laid aside in the heyday of life? A few years of marriage, a couple of children, and she is worn out.

And as she lies
weak and suffering,
she remembers the days, only such a little while behind,
when she tiptoed
along the top
rail of the worm fence, as active and blithe as a squirrel.

But there's something wrong
about this condition. One word expresses it—
"unnatural."

It's against nature to be in such a condition.

It is the unnatural draine, the irregularity, the ulcerations and inflammations, which sap woman's strength. Cure these and health comes back with all its joys.

Diseases of the delicate womanly organs are positively and permanently cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Thousands of women are on record as living witnesses to the truth of that statement.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr.
Pierce by letter without charge. Every letter is held as private and its story guarded as a sacred confidence. All answers are mailed in private envelopes bearing no printing upon them. Address Dr. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Mrs. H. A. Albrook, of Austin, London Co., Ark., writes: "After five months of great suffering I write this for the benefit of other sufferers from the same affliction. I doctored with Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and my husband urged me to try Dr. Pierce's medicines—which I did, with wonderful results.
I am completely cured. I took four bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, four of his "Golden Medical Discovery" and two vials of his "Pleasant Pellets."
