SUBJECT OF COMPLAINT.

Priest Claims Grievance Against America's Representative at Rome.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 7.—The first official caller on President Roosevelt on Sagamore Hill since his arrival here was Rev. John Hay Cushing, a Catholic priest, of Denver (Colo.) who went to file a complaint against Ambassador Meyer, at Rome. He claims he and 28 other priests were driven out of the Denver diocese by Bishop Matz for failure to vote for him for the bishopric. The 28 priests as well as Bishop Matz went to Rome to state their case. The fight has continued without success ever since 1888. In 1901 Bishop Matz is alleged to have had Cushing arrested in Rome for forcing himself into his presence, and it is said Cushing was put in jail by the Italian authorities who openly admitted that it was in retaliation for the lynching of Italians in New Orleans. He claims he was treated to great indignities, and that Ambassador Meyer and Consul De Castro were negligent in protecting him as an American citizen. When Dr. Cushing called the president was not at home but he returned Thursday.
