THE PARLIAMENT OF CANADA.

(Despatches to Morning Papers.)

OTTAWA, Feb. 18.

After the routine Hon. Mr. Cartwright in reply to Mr. Cheval, said that as soon as a further supply of silver was received from England the twenty cent pieces would be withdrawn.

Hon. Mr. Mackenzie, in reply to Mr. Cheval, said the Government did not propose to have the Hansard printed in both French and English unless the House wished it. At present speeches were reported in the language delivered, which was sufficient for all purposes.

In answer to a question, Mr. Mackenzie said it was the intention to make enquiry into the abuses connected with the volunteer militia organization, as well as the general militia system.

Mr. Dymond moved for returns of commitments for trial for capital offences committed since 1st of July, 1867, and full statistical information, with a view to a bill for the abolition of capital punishment.

Mr. McIntyre moved for a copy of the contract for running steamers between ports in Prince Edward Island and Nova Scotia.

After considerable discussion, taken part in by Maritime Province members, the motion was carried.

Mr. Brecker moved for the restoration of the Liquor Saloon in the Parliament building, but the motion was lost, not five members supporting it.

Mr. McIntyre moved for the contract for steamers between P. E. Island and Nova Scotia. After discussion the motion was withdrawn.

Mr. Wallace moved the reference of letter from Mackenzie to Stuart in reference to his management of Pacific Railway Survey Accounts to a Special Committee. He denied that he was guilty of malfeasance and challenged an investigation.

In reply to Sir John A. Macdonald, Mr. Mackenzie stated that the Insolvency Bill would be brought before the House tomorrow; Mr. Geoffrion, that the Supreme Court Bill would be brought forward at an early day. In regard to the Insolvency Bill, he said that there would be several slight alterations of the former one, which would be prepared and circulated throughout the country, in order that the opinion of commercial men might be obtained. The Government proposed to submit it to a committee of 12 members, composed of lawyers and merchants.

Some other unimportant business was passed through, and the House went into committee on the estimates, several items of which were passed, among others the sum of $715,025, under the head of Civil Government.

An Opposition Man Succeeds Walker —Intercolonial Railway Inquiry.

OTTAWA, Feb. 19.

Fraser, the Conservative candidate, was yesterday elected in London by a majority of over one hundred.

The question of accusations made against Wallace, in his connection with an official position on the Canada Pacific survey, was resumed after recess in the Commons.

Wallace's motion for a Committe of the House to investigate the matter was withdrawn on the Premier stating that it would come up before the Public Accounts Committee.

The House then went into Committee of Supply and passed items down to Penitentiaries, inclusive. House adjourned at 11.

The sub-Committee on the Intercolonial Railway met this forenoon and elected Scatcherd Chairman. No witnesses were examined, Brydges not having arrived.

LEGISLATURE OF NEW BRUNSWICK.

HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY.

(By Telegraph to the Tribune.)

FREDERICTON, Feb. 18.

Dr. Dow, in a brief speech, in which he referred to the fitness of Mr. Wedderburn to fill the position, nominated that gentleman for the office of Speaker. The nomination being seconded by the Attorney General, Mr. Wedderburn was unanimously elected, and being escorted to the Chair by the nominors, said: "I assure you gentlemen of the House of Assembly, that I sincerely thank you for the distinguished honor you have conferred upon me by electing me to the position of Speaker, and appreciating the dignity of the office, I shall faithfully, honestly, and earnestly endeavor to discharge its duties."

Mr. Keans introduced the St. John Public Slaughter House Bill.

The Speaker having repeated the Speech Mr. Keans moved the Address in reply thereto, and Mr. Beveridge seconded the same.

Two hundred copies of the Speech and Address were ordered to be printed, and its consideration is set down for Saturday at noon.

On motion of Mr. Robinson, the following Committee on Contingencies was appointed, their decisions to be final: Messrs. Robinson, Austin, Smith, Murchie, Flewwelling, Butler, Covert, Tweedie, O'Leary, Leighton, Blanchard, Phillips, Ryan, Beveridge, Theriault and Keans.

Mr. Keans introduced a bill to regulate the sale of spirituous liquors in Lancaster, Simonds and St. Martins.

Hon. Mr. Willis presented the petition of William Henry Hatheway, praying for redress of grievances committed by the Corporation of St. John for damage to Reed's Point pier. It was laid on the table for the Speaker's consideration.

The Attorney General, in moving for the issue of a writ for the return of a member for the County of St. John, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Coram, said that gentleman's absence was a matter of regret to every gentleman present who knew him. He came to the Legislature in 1865, and served ever since, with the exception of one year. Messrs. McQueen and Perley were the only members of the present House who had served as long as Mr. Coram. He had every reasonable hope of being present to take his seat, but it had not been so willed by Providence. As a public man Mr. Coram was honest, honorable, fearless and painstaking in the discharge of his duties, and firm in his fidelity to St. John County and its interests.

Mr. Austin seconded the Attorney General's motion, which passed, and the House then adjourned.

FREDERICTON, Feb. 19.

After the morning routine Butler, Robinson, Covert, Rogers and Humphrey were appointed a Muling Committee.

On motion of Keans the subject of reporting the debates was referred to the Contingent Committee nor a special report.

On motion of McQueen Dr. Spurden was appointed House Chaplain.

Crawford introduced a bill for the encouragement of manufactures.

Keans presented the petition of the Magistrates of St. John in favor of the Public Slaughter House Bill. Also a petition in favor of the Spiritous Liquor License Bill.

On motion of McQueen the rules regarding the proceedings at the last House were adopted for the guidance of the present House until repealed.

The Speaker read the report of the Hon. Judge Allen on the Theriault election petition matter, showing why said petition was set aside.

Keans moved that two hundred copies of the rules of the House be printed, so that members might have them for reference.

Ryan and Crawford thought, as the rules were in the Journals of last year, that that was sufficient.

Davidson thought the rules should be printed in this year's Journals.

The motion was lost after explanations by McQueen.

Dr. Dow, the Attorney General, McQueen, Cotterel and Pickard were appointed a Committee on Privileges.

On motion of Cotterel a Committee to examine the old and report new rules for the House was appointed, consisting of Cotterel, King, McQueen, Flewelling and Davidson.

Messrs. Covert, Swim, Johnson, Theriault, Pickard, McLeod, Leighton, Murchie, Beveridge, Wood, Rogers, Barker, McKay and McKenzie were appointed an Agricultural Committee.

Shortly after eleven the House took a recess until two.

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

FREDERICTON, Feb. 18.

There were present at the opening of the Legislative Council Hon. Messrs. Saunders, Chandler, Seely, Lewis, Hanington, Bailey, Harrison, Perley, Young, Beveridge, Jones, Lindsay, Hibbard and Beckwith. It was moved by Hon. Mr. Chandler that Hon. Mr. Saunders be President. Carried.

Hon. Mr. Saunders, on taking the chair, thanked the members for the honor done him.

Hon. Mr. Seely moved the address in reply; Hon. Mr. Beckwith seconded it.

The Contingent Committee were re-appointed, with the addition of Hon. Mr. Hibbard.

The Corporation Bills Committee were reappointed, with the addition of Hon. Mr. Harrison.

Hon. Mr. Jones strongly deprecated introducing private bills where the rules of the House had not been complied with.

Shipping Notes.

New Vessels.—The sister ship to the Governor Wilmot, now on the stocks at Messrs. Cruikshanks & Pittfield's yard, Courtenay Bay, and to be launched about June next, is to be named the Governor Tilley. She is a splendid vessel, measuring 191 feet keel, 33½ feet beam, and 24 feet hold. She will register about 1856 tons, and class 9 years French Lloyds. Her figure-head, a bust of Governor Tilley, is being made by Messrs. Cochran & Rogers, Portland Bridge, and reflects considerable credit on the artists. The vessel is owned by the builders, Messrs. Purdy, Z. Ring, Esq., and others.

Mr. Joseph Dunlop has on the stocks two handsome vessels of 1400 and 1500 tons respectively, both to be launched next summer.

The bark Aristides, lately from Barrow, E., with railroad iron, is undergoing thorough repairs at Lovitt's Slip.

In Port for Repairs.—The bark Antwerp and brigt. Oromocto are repairing damages in St. Thomas, and bark Impero is at St. George's in a disabled condition.

In Distress.—The brig Ella, from New Haven for Salmon River, N. B., put into St. George, Bermuda, on the 5th inst, leaking and short of provisions. She resumed her voyage on the 14th.

Steamers.—The R. M. S. Scandinavian, from Liverpool; the Chase, from Halifax and the New Brunswick, Lenee, arrived at Portland this morning.

Point Lepreaux, Feb. 19, 9 a. m.—Wind S. W., light, cloudy; one schooner outward. 1 p. m.—An American man of-war, brig rigged, passing inward.

Parties wishing to rent their houses should place them on the "To Rent" register of P. Besnard & Co., 25 Princess street.
