BORN.

TANNER—In Rock Creek, Ohio, June 17th, to Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Tanner (nee Miss Mary Kerr), a son.

LOCAL.

Look out for a genuine, old-fashioned hot wave soon.

Tait's Corners garden party Friday evening will be a big attraction.

The Toronto Mail and Empire has ceased the publication of its weekly edition.

John Thomson, one of our prominent old residents, is seriously ill with pneumonia.

Yesterday was the longest day in the year. Now we are on the home stretch for Christmas.

The book club will meet next Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Peter McArthur.

Presentation of colors to the 135th Battalion will be made at London on Tuesday, June 27th.

The Sunday School in S. S. No. 7, Ekfrid, was reopened last Sunday with a good attendance.

R. H. Harding, Government Inspector under the Stallion Enrolment Act, was in Glencoe on Tuesday.

Glencoe voters' list for 1916 has been printed and is ready for inspection by the electors for the discovery of errors.

Lieut. Oswald W. Grant, son of Rev. Dr. A. S. Grant, of Toronto, is reported killed in battle. He enlisted in the 3rd at London.

Miss Florence Walker was taken to Victoria Hospital, London, on Friday and successfully operated on for a mild case of appendicitis.

Mitchell & Hagerty have sold their hardware business in Glencoe to Mr. Johnston, of Delaware, who takes possession on July 10th.

Wm. McCutcheon, who was operated on for appendicitis at his home last week, is now recovering. His case was quite serious for a time.

Soon the midsummer holidays of the school children will be with us—the gladdest season of all the year to the youngsters, if to nobody else.

Martin Dotter was painfully ill for a few days last week with the prevailing complaint, appendicitis, but is back on the job again. Mr. Dotter is Alex. Duncanson's repair man and came to Glencoe recently from the Ford garage at London.

A memorial service will be held in Tait's Corners Presbyterian church next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock for the late Alex. Y. Atkinson, who was killed in action in France during the recent severe fighting. Pte. Atkinson was employed on the farm of J. G. Lethbridge and enlisted at London and went to the front with the first contingent. He was a native of Ireland.

Master Tom Simpson's Shetland pony mare "Flossie" foaled a pretty little colt on June 16th. The baby horse is only 25 lbs. weight and 22 1/2 inches high, and is the pet of the whole countryside, who have been to see and admire it at its home on the Longwood Road in Mossa. It would have been the feature attraction at the horse show this week but for a lameness of the mother.

The death occurred recently in Ashfield township of Mrs. Mary Matheson, widow of the late Wm. Matheson. Deceased was a daughter of the late Duncan Taylor, of Ekfrid, and leaves a family of eight sons and one daughter. The surviving sisters are Barbara (Mrs. D. McAlpine), of Ekfrid; Agnes (Mrs. Hyndman), of Glencoe; Miss Sarah, of London; and Cassie (Mrs. McNish), of Cowal.

The West Lorne Sun says:—The Glencoe Dramatic Club presented "Hello, Bill," a three-act comedy, in the Opera House here, on Friday evening, June 2nd, a delightful and well-sized audience. The characters were well selected, each one taking his or her part in professional style. It is doubtful if ever a play gave more general satisfaction than did "Hello, Bill," and we hope to have the pleasure of witnessing another play by these clever performers. A bumper house is sure to greet them if they should again pay a visit to West Lorne.

Funeral services for the late Mrs. Doull were held in the Presbyterian church on Thursday afternoon and were conducted by Rev. W. P. Lane, of Ekfrid, and Rev. Dr. Fraser Smith, of Kilmartin. Mr. Lane delivering a cheering address on translation from physical to spiritual life. A number of Mrs. Doull's old friends and neighbors, former home, motored to Glencoe to pay their last respects. There was a profusion of flowers, including hand-some pieces from the Royal Bank staff, the A. F. & A. M., the Western Farmers' Insurance Company, the Glencoe Dramatic Club, E. T. Huston, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McKellar, Mr. and Mrs. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Davidson, and Mr. and Mrs. Freeland, of London. The grave in Oakland cemetery, where interment was made, was lined and bordered with flowers and shrubbery by members of the Red Cross, in the work of which Mrs. Doull had taken a good share of interest. A Bible, "in remembrance of the mother," was presented to the children on their bereavement by the Missionary Society. The pallbearers were the young men connected with the dramatic club.

Good music, good program, good entertainment and a good time generally is promised for the Tait's Corners garden party Friday night.

The never failing medicine, Holloway's Corn Cure, removes all kinds of corns, warts, etc. Even the most difficult to remove cannot withstand this wonderful remedy.

It may be what people don't know about a popular man that makes him popular.

A profit is not without honor, unless maybe it's the one some people make on trumped up war prices.

Tell a man that he is noisy and he'll laugh at you; tell him that his motor car rattles and he'll want to fight.

Even if it is dry after July 1st, one thing is certain—the moon will get full just as regularly, prohibition or no.

When a man isn't capable of earning a living the only thing left for him to do is to get a political job or break into jail.

Never judge a man by his relatives, instead of by his companions. Relatives are thrust upon him, but companions are usually selected by himself.

"Do you know why the little chickens come out of the eggs, dear?"

"Course I do. They know they'd get boiled if they stayed in."

Going to the Tait's Corners garden party? Sure we are; wouldn't miss it for anything.

"I FEEL LIKE A NEW BEING"

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" Brought The Joy Of Health After Two Years' Suffering

MADAM LAPLANTE
35 St. Rose St., Montreal, April 4th.

"For over two years I was sick and miserable. I suffered from constant Headaches, and had Pulpitation of the Heart so badly that I feared I would die. There seemed to be a lump in my stomach and the Constipation was dreadful. I suffered from Pain in the Back and Kidney Disease.

I was treated by a physician for a year and a half and he did me no good at all. I tried 'Fruit-a-tives' as a last resort. After using three boxes, I was greatly improved and twelve boxes made me well. Now I can work all day and there are no Headaches, no Pulpitation, no Heart Trouble, no Constipation, no Pain, or Kidney Trouble and I feel like a new being—and it was 'Fruit-a-tives' that gave me back my health."

McTaggart-Paterson.

Appin, June 15.—A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mrs. Paterson on Wednesday, June 14, at four o'clock, when her daughter, Margaret Paterson, and Donald McTaggart were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. U. Campbell. The bride looked charming in a dress of grey satin and chiffon, carrying a handsome bouquet of cream roses. She entered the drawing room on the arm of her brother, Douglas Paterson, while the wedding march was played by Miss Isabel Paterson. After congratulations a very dainty dinner was served. Mr. and Mrs. McTaggart left the same evening, going east by motor car.

Galbraith—McDonald.

Appin, June 16.—"Maple Villa," the home of Mr. and Mrs. John S. McDonald, was the scene of a pretty event on Wednesday, June 14, when their only daughter, Ivy Christie Anna, was united in marriage to Herman Galbraith, of Appin. At 3:30 p.m. the bride, groomed in her wedding dress of ivory duchess satin, with bodice of ninon and Roman applique, the skirt finished with a fish train, wearing the bridal veil of tulle, arranged in Juliet cap fashion, wreathed with orange blossoms and carrying a bouquet of bridal roses, entered the drawing room on the arm of her father, to the strains of Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus, played by Miss Mary Galbraith, sister of the groom, and took her place beneath an evergreen arch, which was draped with the red, white and blue, and caught up with the flags of the Allies. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. U. Campbell. While the register was being signed Mrs. Campbell sang sweetly, "Oh Promise Me." After the congratulations the guests repaired to the dining-room, where a pretty color scheme of pink and white was prominent, and partook of a sumptuous wedding dinner. The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl and amethyst pendant, set in platinum; to the pianist, a cameo ring, set in pearls; and to the soloist, a cut glass vase. The couple left to spend their honeymoon in the Eastern States. Mrs. Galbraith were for travelling a smart suit of blue chiffon taffeta, with full corded silk, the code opening over a blouse of shell pink satin. Her hat was a small one of blue and grey tulle braid, with trimming of tulle and pink roses.

The Western Fair.

The grounds and buildings at Queen's Park, London, are being put into shape as rapidly as possible for London's great exhibition to be held this year, September 8th to 10th. The entire park has been in use by the military authorities since last September and a lot of work will have to be done, in order to be ready for the exhibition. The fine new steel grand stand will be in readiness to accommodate the large crowds expected. The management have under consideration now the installation of a new system of admission turnstiles for both outside gates and grand stand. The amusement program this year will be the best possible to secure and the midway will be away above the average. There will be two speed events each day and it is expected that the entire program, both afternoon and evening, will be the best ever offered. Prize lists, entry forms and all information given on application to the secretary, A. M. Hunt, London, Ont.
