

Counsel need not sign pleadings. Sec. 2.—No pleadings shall require the signature of counsel.

Claim.—Contents of. Sec. 3.—The claim is to contain :

- (1.) The name and description of each party plaintiff.
- (2.) The name of each party defendant.
- (3.) A statement of the plaintiff's case in clear and concise language.
- (4.) A prayer for the specific relief to which the plaintiff supposes himself entitled; but the prayer for general relief may be added.

Form of. Sec. 4.—In the several cases enumerated in schedule A, the claim may be in the form, or to the effect set forth in that schedule, as applicable to the particular case; and in cases not enumerated in that schedule, forms similar in principle may be adopted, wherever a more detailed statement is not necessary for the clear and intelligible statement of the case.

Sec. 5.—It must appear upon the face of the claim that the subject matter thereof is within the jurisdiction of the County Court.

To be filed and entered by clerk, Sec. 6.—Upon the claim being brought to the clerk's office to be filed, it shall be his duty to file the same of the day on which it may be so brought in, and to enter the same in a book to be by him kept for that purpose; such entry to contain the names of parties plaintiffs and defendants, and the date of the filing of such claim.

Mode of service of Sec. 7.—It shall not be necessary to serve the defendant with a summons or other process to notify him to answer the claim; but, in lieu thereof, a copy of the claim is to be personally served upon him, with
