

ALL COME FROM THE SAME CAUSE

WHY DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS CURED MME. DUFALT'S ILLS.

She had Diabetes, Sciatica, Backache and Headache, but Found Speedy Relief in the Great Canadian Kidney Remedy.

St. Boniface, Man.—(Special).—After suffering for three years from a complication of diseases, Madame Oct. Dufault, of 84 Victoria Street, this city, is once more in perfect health and Dodd's Kidney Pills are credited with another splendid cure. Speaking of her cure, Madame Dufault says: "Yes, I am again a well woman, and I thank Dodd's Kidney Pills for it. I suffered for three years and I may say I had pains all over my body. I had sciatica, neuralgia and diabetes. My back ached, and I had pains in my head. I was nervous and tired all the time; there were dark circles around my eyes which were also puffed and swollen, and heart fluttering added to my troubles."

"But when I started to use Dodd's Kidney Pills I soon began to get better. I took thirteen boxes in all, and I think they are a grand medicine."

Every one of Madame Dufault's ailments is a direct result of diseased kidneys. That's why Dodd's Kidney Pills so quickly cured them all.

Eyesight Restored

Eyeglasses May be Abandoned

A Wonderful Discovery That Corrects Afflictions of the Eye Without Cutting or Drugging.

There is no need of cutting, drugging or probing the eye for the relief of most forms of disease, as a new method—the Actina treatment—has been discovered, which eliminates the necessity of former tortuous methods. There is no risk or necessity of experiment, as many people report having been cured of failing eyesight, cataracts, granulated lids and other afflictions of the eye, after being pronounced incurable.

F. W. Brooks, Bauchene, P. Q., Canada, writes: "Owing to having severely strained my eyes writing and checking at night, my eyes became very painful, and I could not bear the light. After using 'Actina' less than four months I can read and write as well as ever."

Amanda G. Dumphy, Narhwaak Village, N.B., Canada, writes: "I have used 'Actina' as directed and I can truly say it has done more for my eyes than I expected. I wore glasses for five years and suffered much pain. Since using 'Actina' I can sew or read without glasses and my eyes do not pain me."

Mr. Harry E. Hendryx, Whitneyville, Conn., writes: "One of the leading eye professors told my wife that she would never see with her left eye again. But Actina has restored the sight, and it is now as good as the right one."

Hundreds of other testimonials will be sent on application. "Actina" is purely a home treatment, and is easily used. It will be sent on trial, post paid. If you will send your name and address to the Actina Appliance Co., Dept. 84, 811 Walnut St., Kansas City, Mo., you will receive, absolutely free, a valuable book—Prof. Wilson's Treatise on Disease.

But there, everybody to his own opinion. As for town life versus country existence, I have little to say. Of course, it is obvious that the town has by far the most pleasure opportunities. In the country you are cold in winter and roasted in summer. You sit on a plough all day in the hot, blistering ardour of the sun. Then, at last, when your long fifteen hour day's work is done, you are at liberty to sit out under a tree or on the verandah, and enjoy the cool fragrant air and incidentally sustain a few hundred thousand mosquito stings during the delightful tete-a-tete with your own gloomy reminiscences. This is coming down hard on the country, but it's true. In the city a long evening—minus the mosquitoes—presents itself with various different lines of amusement in which you are at liberty to indulge. Now, be it city or country, metropolitan or hayseed, life as we know it is not all sweet. I'm wise; I've lived in both. Well, I must close. So, thanking you for publication of my last, and thanking you in anticipation regarding this one, I am still Debutante.

Patience Rewarded.

Manitoba, March 25, 1912.

Dear Editor,—This is my second letter to The Western Home Monthly, but my first letter was not printed, so I thought I would try again. I am a new reader of your magazine, and I think it's a fine paper. There is some good reading in it. I enjoy the "Young Man's" and "Young Woman's Problem," and the correspondence pages. I think they are all good. I see some discussion on town and country life. Well, I have lived in the country all my life and I think it's all right. I know lots of town people who would like to live in the country. I would like to correspond with Mona if she will write first, this being Leap Year. I'm just 27 and not too bad looking, and I live in Manitoba. Well, dear editor, thank you very much for this space in your fine paper. I'll sign myself Teamster.

Reply to Cheerful Cynic.

Golden, B.C., March 22, 1912.

Dear Editor,—Having been a reader of your magazine for some years and looking upon it as the best of the many I subscribe for, I venture to reply to your correspondent, Cheerful Cynic, in the correspondence department. In the first place, one can plainly see that Cheerful Cynic has passed a good portion of his "mileposts" and has forgotten entirely the days of his youth, when all to him was "just one girl" for to call his own. Otherwise, I do not understand how he can voice his veins in the manner he has done. What young person will degrade himself or herself in any light, regardless of a correspondence page? Is it not natural for us to think the best of ourselves, even though we do not possess the best of features; and furthermore your correspondent seems to think that some of the descriptions would make good advertisements for a slave sale. Let that be as it may, let me inform Cheerful Cynic that there are thousands of homes that have been made happy by the influence of his "slave advertisements," homes where happiness never reigned, until one of the fair sex entered them. Men were so situated in those homes that they would not see one of the fair sex for six months at a stretch. To try to be happy was in vain. What recourse had they? The correspondence pages is their only salvation. Let Cheerful Cynic imagine if he can that he is on a homestead 50 miles from civilization, cooking his "bannocks and hardtack" three times a day for a number of years, and I am positive that he would be very grateful to have an opportunity to be released from such. And, furthermore, let me inform him also that although such correspondence may appear monotonous to him, there are thousands who read the correspondence before they read any other part of the magazine; and that simple fact is no indication of monotony in the columns. And, as to "that truck of pretty teeth, rosy lips, etc.," allow me also to inform him that in Canada to-day there are some of the most beautiful women that

DON'T NEGLECT CATARRH

CATARRH SPECIALIST SPROULE
Graduate in Medicine and Surgery, Dublin University, Ireland, formerly Surgeon British Royal Mail Naval Service.

Take it in hand at once! Drive it out of your system before it ruins your health—your happiness—your very life's welfare itself!

Don't be blind to its dangers, because it works so quietly. Catarrh wrecks more lives than we realize.

Are you making that common, dangerous mistake of thinking Catarrh a trifling ailment? Are you fooling yourself with the idea it's only a stubborn, obstinate head-cold that in time will "cure itself"?

Don't deceive yourself any longer! Catarrh can't cure itself. While you heedlessly neglect it you're fast becoming a hawking, spitting, foul-breathed nuisance—an object of disgust to every one you meet. Worse still—Catarrh may get down to your lungs.

Once Catarrh settles on the lungs it's no longer Catarrh—it's consumption. Consumption comes from neglected Catarrh, and over two million people die every year from Consumption.

CURE YOUR CATARRH NOW—don't let it run on another day. Write to me at once and let me give you the most helpful and valuable
