What do these countries have in common?

An increasing demand for English language teachers. But you don't have to be an English major to teach English abroad.

You simply need an under graduate degree, a taste for travel, and an international-recognized certificate in TEFL (Teaching English as a Foreign Language).

If the idea of a working holiday appeals to you, call us today at the International Language Institute. We'll send you information on our 4-week summer programme leading to the University of Cambridge in Teaching English as a Foreign Language to Adults (CTEFLA)

Dalhousie's New Bachelor of Commerce Co-op Program

The School of Business at Dalhousie University is pleased to announce its innovative educational program, the B.Comm. Co-op Program. This four year degree program allows students to receive formal education through a work and study term structure. This program will improve work skills as well as increase employment options after graduation. Work term earnings will also help finance the costs of education.

Dalhousie is one of Canada's oldest and most prestigious universities and a B.Comm. Co-op degree from Dalhousie will be highly recognized and valued. School of Business graduates are already sought after by leading Canadian and international employers. This new degree program will provide students with an even greater edge.

Students of the B.Comm. Co-op Program can select an area of concentration that matches their interest such as accounting, marketing, management, international business or finance. Our program is designed to prepare you for effective management in small or large companies or organizations.

We are looking for motivated, creative individuals who want to excel in their careers. We'd like you to call or write us today for more information.
