

Medical missionaries back in town

Many Streetsville people will be interested to know that Dr. and Mrs. R. B. McClure, medical missionaries in India for several years for the United Church of Canada, returned home on Friday.

The McClures came by boat to the U.S. then via train from San Francisco to Toronto.

Dr. and Mrs. McClure are the parents of Mrs. David Busby and were in Streetsville two years ago while on furlough and spoke in the Anglican Church.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Cunningham, Queen St. on the birth of their daughter, Lori Michelle at Peel Memorial Hospital on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack McLean, Main St. who celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary, Jan. 2, were entertained recently by their daughter Betty, Mrs. Lonnie Corbier.

Nearly 30 guests gathered at the Corbier home on the 5th. line to congratulate the McLeans and present them with a gift of money.

Mrs. Corbier served a dinner that everyone enjoyed.

Mrs. Marg Astley, Rob and Heather have returned from a two-week visit to Vernon.

The Astleys stayed with Mrs. Astley's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Don MacMillian who own and operate the Allison Hotel in Vernon.

Mrs. Mildred MacMillian also went along and it was the first time in 18 years that the family had been together for Christmas and New Years.

Mrs. MacMillian is visiting with her son a while longer in B.C. On the return trip by train the Astleys encountered temperatures as cold as 55-degrees below zero and on several occasions the train has to stop and be de-iced.

At one point the dining car froze up and another had to be hooked on.
