A Feature
by Roger Doris

This duo is known as Double Vision and will be appearing at the Mississauga Tavern and Dining Room, Dundas and Wharton Way, this coming Friday and Saturday evenings. The Mississauga Tavern has a large dance floor and this group will be playing the music that should get everyone up dancing.

An Evening Out with Roger Doris

be putting on shows and revues and special evenings in the near future that will make her club one of the most exciting places in the entire area.

If you remember how they made the Brunswick House one of the most entertaining and newsworthy spots in the city, then like myself, you too will believe that they can certainly do the same with their new venture, the Boulevard Inn in New Toronto.

You can be sure of one thing, they will run a clean and respectable operation which is just what the area needs. I wish them all the success in the world.

If you haven't been to the new Mark Twain Show Boat in Port Credit then you have really missed something.

This former Mississauga paddlewheeler is now tied up permanently at dockside in Port Credit Harbor and is being used as a floating dining, room and entertainment hall, recapturing its glorious past.

The Show Boat was originally built in 1896 and steamed up and down the Mississippi River for over 30 years. It came to be a restaurant in Buffalo, New York where the present owner saw it and purchased it. It was towed over to Port Credit and was restored to the beautiful condition that it is in now.

The Show Boat is 200 feet long with a paddle wheel at the stern. It has four floors housing three bars and three dining rooms. It is 55 feet high with a sign atop that rises another 25 feet in the air. It has a girth of 33 feet but it's 25,000 square feet and can seat 500 persons comfortably.

The waiters are dressed in blue blazers with white trousers while the waitresses wear costumes of the boat's original era.

The entertainment is excellent, as is the food, but it is worth a visit just to admire this grand old lady of a bygone era.

Borgy Borgerson whose group appeared so long at the Skyline Hotel, is currently appearing at the New Mark Twain Show Boat in Port Credit Harbour. Borgy displays his record made by his Banjo Reunion which has been a favourite with hundreds who have heard it.
